Townpeople urged to get dialling to win £60,000 for The Hub

GET dialling and help The Hub youth club win £60,000.

This is the message that is going out loud and clear to all people living in Lyme Regis as The Hub attempts to secure a financial windfall in the Jubilee People's Millions.

The plea is being back by all sections of the community, including Lyme Regis Town Council.

Newly-elected Mayor Sally Holman told the View: "The Hub project has caught the imagination of all sections of the community.

"And now every resident in Lyme Regis can help to win the £60,000 on offer in this unique Lottery promotion to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

"The voting number will not be released until 9 am on Tuesday (June 28th) and I urge everyone in the town to find out what that number is and to phone. It will only cost 11p a call from a landline.

"The public can vote up to ten times from every phone they can access. It's a simple but effective way of showing your support for The Hub - and the end result could be a magnificent £60,000 windfall.

"I have been really impressed how The Hub has caught the imagination of all and sundry in Lyme. It's one of the most exciting developments in our community for a very long time and the £60,000 could play a huge part in getting the youth club open as soon as possible.

"Please get dialling for The Hub and demonstrate that our young people have the full support of the town."

♦THUMBS UP FOR THE HUB: Project leader Fran Williams and local youngsters pictured this week

Gig Club by the People's Millions and the organisers say that it may be necessary to secure as many as 10,000 calls to win the £60,000.

The Hub will be recruiting dozens of volunteers on Tuesday to distribute the nuber and urge people to call the voting line.

In a bid to promote the campaign the Woodroffe School organised a world record attempt on the biggest number of people singing "Frere Jacques" on the Cobb on Sunday morning.

■ HAVING been elected to Lyme Regis Town Council in the May elections and given the chairmanship of its most influential committee soon after, Mark Gage is already setting out his plans for the future of the town.

Born and bred in West London, Mark spent over 20 years working in IT and Broadcast Engineering, mainly with BBC News, travelling the country to provide technical support to journalists, sparking an interest in current affairs and a "healthy distrust" of politicians.

In 2003, Mark moved to Lyme Regis with his wife Alison and their two children. He now works advising companies how to reduce their utility costs and carbon footprints.

As a member of the local lifeboat crew, Mark has an interest in all things boating, as well as motor-biking.

■ WHAT brought you to Lyme Regis?

Alison and I were keen to get away from the breakneck pace of living in London, and to find somewhere with a better quality of life in which to bring up our children. We had visited Lyme on many occasions and had really fallen in love with it, so when we had the chance to look for somewhere, Lyme just seemed the natural choice. Although it was a big change for us, from the beginning it felt like home.

■ WHAT prompted you to put yourself forward as a councillor in the May elections?

My son was involved in the action group formed to save The Boys Club (The Hub), and talked me into getting involved, and it just sort of grew from there. I'm a great believer that you get the community you deserve, and that it's not enough to just sit around talking about how you want to see things get better - sometimes you have to put the time in. Lyme is such a wonderful place to live, but it won't stay that way without a strong community helping to protect all that is good about it.

■ IN your election address you said you had previous experience as a councillor. Where was this?

I was a councillor in the London Borough of Hillingdon for eight years, specialising in Planning and Economic Development. Being a councillor in Hillingdon was very different - there were a total of 64 councillors and the ward I represented had over 10,000 people in it, almost three times the population of Lyme. Some things were similar, though, like the wide range of incomes and social backgrounds.

■ IN your vision for the town council, you gave a commitment to young people that you will deliver the long-awaited skatepark. How do you plan to do so?

We have a site identified and a commitment from the district council to work with us to develop a park there. The next steps must be to work with the young people to agree a design and to apply for planning permission. What is clear is that we will not be able to do it all in one go; we will have to phase its development and proceed as funding allows. The young people of the town have waited too long for this, and I don't want to see them wait any longer now than is absolutely necessary. I hope it should be possible to see the first phase started within the next 12 months.

■ YOU are very involved with the lifeboat station at Lyme Regis. Do you think the lifeboat service should be financed from the public purse, as are the other emergency services in this country, or is it better off being a charitable organisation?

It's been a true honour to be part of the crew at Lyme Regis and something I would never have dreamt possible before moving to Lyme. The RNLI is a unique organisation and one of its key strengths is that it is made up of volunteers. So the simple answer is no, it would be very difficult to continue this volunteer ethos if it became a government funded service.

■ IF you could wave a magic wand, what would be your biggest wish for Lyme?

I'd like to find a way for improving the opportunities for our young people. We need to drive the local economy to provide more high value jobs and to improve the availability of affordable housing for them. And if I could have a second go, it would be to reduce the number of seagulls!

■ IF you could invite three great seafarers to dinner, who would they be and why?

Captain Cook - it must have been fantastic mapping whole continents for the first time, Sir Francis Chichester - I remember following his progress as he became the first person to single handedly circumnavigate the globe and I'd like to find out how he managed all that time on his own, and finally, it would have to be a character from fiction, Long John Silver. He's always suffered from a bad press, and I bet he would lighten the mood!

■ HOW would you like to be remembered on your epitaph?

He had an open and enquiring mind, didn't hold grudges and smiled a lot. If you are asking what I would like on my grave stone, I would have to borrow from the late, great Spike Milligan and have "I told you I was ill!"

Council's support for new Marine Theatre business plan

THE new-look Lyme Regis Town Council has given its full backing to a new business plan for the Marine Theatre.

The town council supports the theatre to the tune of £32,000 a year plus free office accommodation. But last year they had to provide a further £30,000 to stop the theatre going out of business.

One of the conditions of the additional finance was that a new business plan would be put together showing that the theatre could operate without additional council funding.

That business plan was presented to the Strategy and Policy Committee last week by David Edwards, the acting chairman of Lyme Arts Community Trust, which runs the theatre.

In a report accompanying the business plan, the trust said the new 12-month budget realistically reflected both income and expenditure targets and that they would maintain an accurate cash-flow projection as well as keeping under review all income generating methods.

It was also intended to draw up a policy for building reserves.

A reassessment of staffing needs had been carried out and the report stressed the important role that volunteers

by Philip Evans

had in the running of the theatre.

The report concluded that the condition and fabric of the building continued to be a source of concern to the trustees and that a recently completed survey would help to determine the next steps to ensure "the structural integrity and condition of the theatre".

In addressing the councillors, Mr Edwards said the trust was very grateful to the support the town council gave to the theatre.

Low wages

The new business plan showed a small profit of £1,171 for the year, having taken into consideration the £32,000 funding from the town council and the increased grant of £7,500 from West Dorset District Council, most of which was paid back in commission paid to the district council run Tourist Information Centre for selling tickets.

Answering questions from councillors, Mr Edwards said they had to ensure the operation of the theatre remained sustainable.

Councillor Lucy Campbell drew attention to the reduction in staffing levels, adding that the cost of wages was "extremely low".

Councillor Barbara Austin commented on the "wealth of local talent" in Lyme Regis and Councillor Michaela Ellis wondered whether there could be greater collaboration with Lyme Regis Museum, who were short of space.

Councillor Chris Clipson said the council should recognise the tremendous amount of work that was going into the on-going running of the theatre.

Councillor Terry O'Grady said discos were a good source of revenue and he hoped these could be introduced again at the theatre.

Councillor Owen Lovell said a very close watch should be kept on income and expenditure at the theatre.

He commented: "Drama and discos are not good bed fellows but they provide good funding and I hope this is something that can be looked at. We still have the same old problems at the theatre - the roof and toilets. It's nice to hear that you are trying to build reserves. It is important that you do this. When seeking funding the first thing they say is what funds do you have."

And he added: "I think the town wants a theatre."

District councillor Daryl Turner said WDDC was reviewing its support for the arts across West Dorset in November and he was hopeful that the Marine Theatre would get an increased share.

Committee chairman Mark Gage said he considered the Marine Theatre to be the "jewel of Lyme Regis" and he acknowledged that the trustees and staff were working very hard.

Police warning to adults: Don't buy booze for under 18s

POLICE have warned that buying alcohol for under-18s is an offence that could result in an £80 fine or could be taken to court.

The police recently received a report that young people had approached adults outside Tesco Express in Broad Street and asked them to buy them alcohol. One adult refused but the other agreed.

PC Richard Winward said: "Tackling underage drinking, with associated litter and damage, is always a priority for us. However, although the local shops refuse to sell alcohol to anyone they suspect of being under age, it is clear that adults are purchasing alcohol on their behalf."

He added that such offences could be proved using CCTV evidence.

Damage to cars in King's Way

POLICE are calling for information after the wing mirrors of three cars in Lyme Regis were damaged.

The cars, all parked in King's Way, were damaged on Friday night and tampered with again on Saturday night.

Lyme Regis Police would like to hear from anyone with information and is asking residents to phone the police if any disturbance is heard in the street.

The police can be contacted on 01305 22222 or 07500 816 312.

Councillors vote for expenses

LYME Regis town councillors have voted in favour of paying themselves expenses of £489 per year - but it is doubtful whether any or all of them will claim them.

The amount which can be claimed for expenses is determined by the number on electorate, currently 2,975.

The previous council considered the matter but the majority were not in favour of the move. However, they left the decision to the new council.

That decision was made at last week's meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee when councillors argued that having expenses could encourage single parents to put up for council in the future. The expenses will be paid in 12 monthly installments of £40.75 but it is up to individual councillors whether they should claim or not.

If all 14 councillors claimed expenses it would cost the council taxpayers of Lyme Regis just under £7,000 a year.

Councillor Owen Lovell said he was not in favour of expenses being paid to town councillors and pointed out that no provision had been made in the current budget.

He suggested that the matter be referred to the next budget meeting when a decision could then be made.

A proposition to pay expenses was proposed by Councillor Lorna Jenkin and seconded by Councillor Anita Williams.

Councillor Williams pointed out that councillors who did not wish to keep the money themselves could gift aid it to charity.

The decision to award expenses was carried by ten votes to four with Councillor Lovell asking for a recorded vote.

Former mayor Councillor Michaela Ellis said that if any of the new council claimed expenses she would do likewise but donate the full amount to charity.

District councillors receive expenses of just under £5,000 a year.

Cobb pontoon extended

THE seasonal visitors' pontoon in Victoria Pool, between Victoria Pier and the Cobb, in Lyme Regis, has been extended.

The pontoon has also been attached to the steps on the south side of Victoria Pier to enable access for visitors at all states of the tide.

A light designed to warn vessels entering and leaving the harbour has been sited on the end of the pontoon and its characteristics are as follows: an amber slow-flashing light 0.5 meters above sea level at position N50° 43.176, W02° 56.125.

Corinthians thwarted by strong tides but twinning progresses

By Francesca Evans

THE Corinthian rowers from Lyme Regis were unable to make it across the English Channel to prospective twin town Barfleur because of strong winds.

The rowers planned to take a gift of local produce to the French fishing village as practice for the 2,500-nautical mile Atlantic Challenge, which they will be taking on in December.

The team – made up of Elliot Dale, Chris Walters, Tony Short and Brian Fletcher – left Lyme Regis at 7pm last Wednesday but 12 hours later, at 7am on Thursday, they had only rowed 15 miles and were being pushed by the wind towards the Portland Race. The team had to turn back and return to Lyme.

Although disappointed about not reaching their destination, the Corinthians said they were happy with the part of the row they achieved and learnt a lot about rowing at night. They hope to organise another practice row soon but not across the Channel.

Residents of Barfleur, in Normandy, were also disappointed not to see the rowers arrive, but it didn't stop them making plans for an official twinning with Lyme Regis. At a village meeting, six officers were elected to proceed with the twinning arrangements.

Much in common
Deputy Mayor of Barfleur, Michel Mauger, said: "We are very sad that the rowers could not come to promote our twinning with Lyme Regis but, of course, we understand why they were unable to complete the crossing."

Newly-elected president of the twinning group, Christiane Gancel, who has already visited Lyme Regis, added: "We feel we have so much in common with the town of Lyme Regis. We are a coastal village with a lovely harbour, and we have a small community who simply love where they live, just like the people of Lyme Regis."

Barfleur is a 30 minute drive from Cherbourg and is listed as one of the most beautiful villages in France. In the Middle Ages it was the most important port in the country.

Sheila Poupard, chairman of the Lyme Regis twinning steering group, who visited Barfleur last week, said: "We are delighted with the response of the people of Barfleur, and now look forward to forging strong links with them and their village."

"We are hoping to welcome a party from Barfleur to Lyme Regis in September."

■ THE Barfleur Twinning Committee elected last week with the Lyme Regis plaque presented to them

Fears over safety of proposed cycle path

LYME Regis town councillors have agreed to consult with the county county's cycle expert before proceeding with plans to establish a cycle path along the new Cart Road.

Before discussing the proposal, which has been on the council's agenda for a couple of years, at a meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee, former councillor Peter Williams, who uses the Cart Road frequently in a wheelchair, read a statement during the public forum session.

Mr Williams, who served on the town council for two decades before losing his seat in the May elections, said the council would have to "abandon" its claim to having a "traffic-free" seafront if they approved the cycle path plan.

He also called for an independent risk assessment on the proposal, but asked that this be carried out at peak times when the Cart Road was busy and not early in the morning.

He said there would also have to be full consultation with the owners of the Rinky Tinks ice-cream parlour, beach hut owners and Dorset County Council.

Mr Williams continued: "I probably spend more time than any councillor along this part of the Cart Road and see small children and adults just walk out of their huts without looking.

By Philip Evans

"On many occasions I have seen cyclists impatiently trying to overtake pedestrians where there is little room. This is a place where an accident is waiting to happen.

"To hire beach huts to the public and then put a cycle path in front where small children can and will run or even walk out, is totally inconsiderate."

Town clerk Mike Lewis said he was seeking a meeting with the officer responsible for cycle paths and they would also be consulting the county road safety team.

Councillor Barbara Austin said there would be many health and safety issues to consider, pointing out there was a high volume of children using the Cart Road in July and August.

"We are responsible for ensuring their safety," she said.

Councillor Daryl Turner

pointed out that the council was unable to stop anyone cycling along the Cart Road because there were no by-laws in place and a cycle path could be safer in the future.

Councillor Lucy Campbell, who originally raised the idea of a cycle path, said it was not the idea to have a dedicated area for cyclists as this could cause a lot of conflict with other Cart Road users.

"It will be better to have a combined use," she said.

Councillor Chris Clipson said they did not want the issue to "run on and on".

Mr Lewis said the council would take a decision after receiving proper advice from the county.

Committee chairman Mark Gage said: "We want to move this along as soon as possible. I am one of the guilty ones who cycles along the Cart Road but I always give way to the public."

Councillor George Symonds pointed out that some cyclists went along the Cart Road like "a bat out of hell", adding: "I see this on a regular basis."

Too many meetings could put pressure on council's officers

A TOWN councillor has raised concerns that too many meetings are being held in the evenings, putting pressure on council staff.

Former Mayor, Councillor Michaela Ellis, objected to Operational Management Sub-Committee meetings being held in the evenings, rather than in the afternoons.

She expressed concerns at last week's Strategy and Policy Committee meeting that the Tourism and Advertising Sub-Committee had also moved their meetings to an evening slot, to suit the needs of the new younger council, most of which have daytime jobs.

Referring to the town council's administrative officer, Vicky Stickler, Councillor Ellis said: "How will this affect staffing? We have a member of staff that comes to all the meetings to take the minutes. How will time off be given?"

Councillor Terry O'Grady asked if it was possible to train another staff member to take minutes.

Councillor Daryl Turner suggested using a Dictaphone to record meetings, adding: "There is no need to take manual notes anymore."

Referring to town clerk Mike Lewis and deputy town clerk Simon Ratcliff, Councillor Owen Lovell asked whether it was necessary for two senior officers to be present at a meeting.

Councillor Anita Williams proposed that the meetings be moved to the evenings, which was seconded by Councillor Lovell.

He added: "I have always believed that all council meetings should be held in the evening."

Councillor Ellis said: "I'm against this because more discussion needs to take place on how this can be done."

■ LYME Regis Town Council's youngest member, Councillor Lucy Campbell, has been elected vice-chairman of the authority's most influential committee.

Miss Campbell, who topped the poll in the recent town council elections, was appointed vice-chairman at the first meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee on Wednesday of last week.

New councillor Mark Gage was elected chairman of the committee at the council's annual meeting last month.

Other chairmanships and vice-chairmanships given last week were as follows:

Tourism and Advertising Sub-Committee: Vice-chairman - Councillor Rikey Austin (Councillor Lorna Jenkin was elected chairman and last month's annual meeting);

Operational Management Sub-Committee: Chairman - Councillor Chris Clipson, vice-chairman - Councillor Terry O'Grady. It was decided to increase the membership of this sub-committee from nine to 12, with all councillors wishing to sit on it except Councillors Lorna Jenkin and Daryl Turner;

Organisational Management Sub-Committee: Chairman - Councillor Sally Holman, vice-chairman - Councillor Mark Gage.

Uplyme Village Fete beats

POURING rain failed to dampen high spirits at Uplyme Village Fete, which raised just under £1,500 for local organisations and the village hall despite the poor weather.

The event started with its traditional procession, from Mrs Ethelston's Primary School to the King George V Playing Fields, led by Lyme Regis town crier Phil Street and fete princesses Ella Hawkins and Rose Trafford in a vintage car.

by Francesca Evans

The parade was followed by the Karizma Majorettes, 1st Lym Valley Scouts and Uplyme Morris Men.

After arriving at the playing fields, the town crier declared the fete open and officially crowned the princesses before judging the Harry Potter themed children's fancy dress competition.

Entertainment was provided throughout the afternoon by the Karizma Majorettes, who braved a downpour in the middle of their routine to continue dancing, the Morris Men and band Black Velvet.

Woodroffe School's Early Music Group also performed in the village hall, where cream teas were being served.

Fun and games included the traditional Uplyme Wheel, wet sponge throwing organised by Uplyme Parish Church, plate smashing with the 1st Lym Valley Scouts and face painting with Uplyme Brownies.

Other stall holders were: Uplyme Pre-School, RNLI, Mrs Ethelston's Primary School, Uplyme and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society, Uplyme Football Club, Lyme Bay Baden Powell Scouts, Lyme Regis Operatic Society, East Devon branch of Cats Protection, Julia's House Children's Hospice, Devon Air Ambulance, St Margaret's Hospice from Taunton, Uplyme Women's Section of the Royal British Legion.

Organiser Paula Wyon-Brown said it was a "good day" and was pleased with the profits considering the weather.

She thanked sponsors Keeley Windows, the Old Black Dog, Pinhay House, Travis Perkins, the Talbot Arms and Uplyme Stores, plus all those who helped on the day.

Hub supporters beat world record

SUPPORTERS of The Hub youth club in Lyme Regis broke the world record for the most people to sing "Frere Jacques" on Sunday.

The record attempt was held to raise awareness of The Hub's campaign to win £60,000 Lottery funding in the Jubilee People's Millions competition, which will be screened in ITV West Country on Tuesday, June 28th.

Despite the poor weather, a total of 410 people lined the high wall of the Cobb and took part in singing a continuous round of the French children's song, beating the previous record of 220.

Singers ranged from three-year-old children to those in their 90s, who all braved pouring rain to take part in the Father's Day event.

Film footage of the record attempt has now been sent to the Guinness Book of World Records for official verification.

Woodroffe School art teacher and organiser Dot Wood said: "We were delighted with the support from local people - the number of recognisable faces by far outweighed those of visitors."

"It's fantastic to know that everyone is backing The Hub campaign and working to provide somewhere that generations of young people can use as their own designated space."

The next step for Hub supporters is to get as many phone votes as possible on June 28th, when the youth club's bid will be screened between 5.45pm and 6.15pm.

Volunteers are needed to drum up support on the day, nicknamed "Hub Tuesday", and are asked to meet at Lyme Regis Development Trust offices in St Michael's Business Centre at 9am.

Thumbs up for The Hub

VOTE FOR US!

■ VOTE FOR US: Young people and supporters of The Hub are filmed by ITV West Country for their bid to win £60,000 Lottery funding on June 28th

THE Hub opened its doors to a camera crew from ITV West Country on Thursday, as part of its bid to win £60,000 Lottery funding.

The crew were filming for the Jubilee People's Millions competition, in which The Hub will be pitched against Portland Gig Club to win the cash prize as part of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations.

The video will be screened on ITV next Tuesday, June 28th, now known as "Hub Tuesday", and campaigners are doing everything they can to make as many people as possible phone in and vote for the young people's cause.

Voting phone numbers will be distributed around the town on the day and calls will cost 11 pence each.

■ THE new Lyme Regis Town Council have found something to agree on - they're all offering their support to The Hub campaign.

Councillors and officers took time out of their busy Strategy and Policy Committee meeting last week to offer their support and give a thumbs up to the youth club's bid to win £60,000 (pictured top left).

Former councillor Pete Williams and his wife Shirley have also been snapped giving the thumbs up (left), as well as Lyme Regis Development Trust chief executive, Marcus Dixon, with Woodroffe School headteacher, Dr Richard Steward, and pupils (far left).

Don't forget to give your support on Tuesday, June 28th by phoning and voting for The Hub to win the Jubilee People's Millions competition.

Library could face closure again in two year's time

by Francesca Evans

"It is looking better now but until the county council meet in July it is not certain," she added.

LIBRARY campaigners will have to wait until next month to find out if their local service has been saved from county council cuts.

Dorset's Community Overview Committee met to discuss the future of Dorset's libraries. Despite many councillors speaking in favour of saving all 34 libraries by reducing the number of new books and cutting transport costs across the county, it was decided to pass the decision on to the Cabinet, which will meet on July 6th.

The Cabinet will discuss four options - their preferred being to transfer the running of 10 libraries over to local communities and retain the other 24, including Lyme Regis but not Charmouth.

Councillor Lorna Jenkin said: "I am beginning to uncross my fingers; I must admit to a raising of my hopes for it is now almost certain that Lyme Regis library will be fully funded and resourced by the County Council for the next couple of years.

"However, several councillors did refer to further funding problems following the next County Council elections should the economic situation not improve. Lyme must continue to devise a more economical, improved and modernised service to future-proof the Library - or we might not be so lucky in 2013."

CAMPAIGNERS have said they must look into an alternative future for Lyme Regis Library, despite news that it is likely to be saved from cuts, or the service could face the axe again in two years.

Library campaigner Councillor Anita Williams told the town council's Strategy and Policy Committee last week that Lyme was at "serious risk" of coming back to the same situation in two years if alternative options for the library were not pursued.

Possible future options include moving the library from its current Silver Street site to merge with another local organisation, such as Lyme Regis Development Trust or The Hub youth club, and using the existing site to build affordable housing.

Councillor Williams explained that, despite news that the library was likely to be saved from county council cuts this year, it could be at risk again soon because the government is looking to scrap legislation that states local authorities must provide an accessible library service.

Councillor Owen Lovell said the council needed to form an official view on the possibility of the library merging with The Hub.

He said he thought there was "a lot of mileage" in moving the service to Lyme Regis Development Trust offices at St Michael's Business Centre instead, as the trust had planning permission for an extension and the library would tie in well with LymeNET.

Councillor Williams said there would be plenty of opportunities for debate after the current situation of the library was finalised and it was known for definite that the service would not be cut.

AN open garden in Lyme Regis raised £1,511 for Help for Heroes. Frank and Elsie McGarry opened their garden at Lower Ware, in Ware Lane, to the public to raise money for charity. The event also included an auction, organised by local horticulturalist Nigel Ball. Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Dorset Minnie Churchill contributed a signed copy of her book on Winston Churchill's paintings. Pictured above, from left to right, are Elsie McGarry, Karen Ball, Nigel Ball and Ashley Ball.

Service remembers historic burial

THE Church of St Candida and the Holy Cross in Whitchurch Canonorum marked the 400th anniversary of the burial of Admiral Sir George Somers - Lyme Regis' most famous son.

On June 2nd 1611 the body of Admiral Somers - the former Mayor of Lyme Regis who colonised Bermuda after being shipwrecked on the islands on the way to Jamestown, Virginia - was returned to Lyme by his nephew Matthew Somers.

His body was landed on the historic Cobb harbour and received by a volley of muskets. It was then transported to Whitchurch Canonorum for an honourable burial on June 4th.

To mark the 400th anniversary, the Celtic cross memorial, which stands in the church, was decorated with a Bermuda flag, an assortment of seashells and a parchment scroll recognising the event. The cross was decorated by Lyme Regis and St George's, Bermuda Twinning Association member Judith Potecary.

A prayer in memory of Admiral Somers was given by the Reverend Stephen Skinner at the recent Sunday Service of Pentecost, which was attended by twinning association chairman and town crier, Phil Street, and his wife Dawn.

LINKS between Lyme Regis and St George's in Bermuda will be celebrated with the annual Admiral Sir George Sommers Commemoration Parade, when a civic party from Bermuda will visit the town.

The procession will be held at 11.30am on Wednesday, July 27th to tie in with Lifeboat Week events, starting at Langmoor Gardens and finishing on the Cobb.

■ HAPPY ANNIVERSARY: Past and present centre volunteers, trustees and supporters enjoy an anniversary lunch

Heritage centre celebrates 25th year with special lunch

THE popular Charmouth Heritage Coast Centre this year celebrates its 25th anniversary, having been established in 1985.

Past and present centre volunteers, trustees and supporters recently gathered for a special buffet lunch to mark the occasion.

Senior warden and centre manager, Meirel Whaites, has been at the centre for nine years. She said the lunch gave current staff members the chance to thank all those who had previously supported them.

She added: "I feel very privileged to have been her for a third of the centre's lifetime and I hope to continue working here and providing people with education and enjoyment."

Charmouth Heritage Coast Centre was established with the main aim to enhance people's enjoyment of the local coast and countryside in a manner that encourages its future well being.

The centre, from its earliest days, has always sought to change and develop in response to new opportunities and circumstances. Following the designation of the East Devon and Dorset coast as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2001, the centre underwent a major re-development over the winter of 2004-05.

In 2010, over 87,000 visitors were welcomed through its doors and taught over 5,000 school children on organised visits.

The centre is an independent charity and relies heavily on volunteers for day-to-day running, and also assisting on events and in a wide range of other roles. New volunteers are always welcome and further information can be found on the website www.charmouth.org or by contacting the warden team on 01297 560772.

Learn the history of Lyme's museum

THE history of Lyme Regis Museum is the subject of curator Mary Godwin's talk tomorrow (Thursday).

Mary will tell the story of the building, its architecture and its collections, starting at 2.30pm.

Former curator John Fowles, author of "The French Lieutenant's Woman", described the museum as representing Lyme's soul – "both its past and living memory". Twenty years on it is also a place of research, education, cultural events and entertainment.

■ Marine biologist expert Chris Andrew will hold two of his regular "Know Your Fossils" sessions at the museum on Saturday and Sunday, June 25th and 26th, both starting at 2.30pm.

Chris will discuss how to find, identify and handle fossils, as well as how they lived, and how they have survived for 200 million years. Bring your own finds along for identification.

Local talent helping to save the Marine

VOLUNTEERS at the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis are giving of their time and energy generously to ensure one of the smallest seaside theatres in the country has a secure future.

3QB Productions (the 3QB comes from the theatre postcode) has been formed specifically to stage full-length shows, using local actors, to raise funds for the cash-strapped theatre.

Their first venture last week, "Crippen", a whacky melodrama in music hall genre, cleverly directed by Jenny Wiles, after just one month's rehearsal, was well received by theatre supporters and provides much hope that the Marine will not only survive its current financial challenges but will prosper in the future.

Dr Hawley Harley Crippen, of course, rose to infamy by allegedly poisoning and dismembering his wife, hiding her remains under the basement floor before fleeing to North America with his lover only to be arrested thanks to the marvels of wireless telegraphy.

But was it all a huge miscarriage of justice? Many thought so.

For their first production, and using the music hall vernacular, Jenny Wiles managed to bring together "a venerable company of exponents of the thespian arts" together with some fresh talent and familiar stage names to those who are regulars at the Marine.

The expectation was

heightened for me when I took my place in the cabaret-style seating, which added much to the atmosphere of the evening, when I read the cast list and saw the names Sylvia Lee and Jean Heppenstall.

As a young reporter (and I'm going back 40 years here) I covered many of the plays staged by Lyme Regis Dramatic Society when Sylvia Lee and husband Len were revered in local theatrical circles. I was much in awe of Sylvia as it seemed to me there was no role that was beyond her.

And Jean Heppenstall, whose stage career goes back to the 1930s, was the driving force behind Lyme's now defunct Community Players who raised thousands of pounds for local good causes over a ten-year period.

They both featured prominently in the opening music hall scenes and got the evening off to a rip-roaring start with their rendition of "Ain't Got a Barrel of Money".

Along with another veteran of the local stage, Anne King, they featured in a number of roles throughout the show and proved that the years have not diminished their enduring appeal.

3QB's young recruits will have learned much from the trio's mastery of stage presence and timing.

And young recruits there were in the cast list so a huge pat on the back to Lowell Fachau (playing the roles of singer, barrister, removal man and saint) and Nicole Parkinson Ward (singer, secretary, police sergeant, saint) for not being overawed in such distinguished company and contributing much to the overall success of the evening.

"Crippen" was one of those shows in which the cast took a number of cameo roles with the exception of the three leading roles played by Jerry Smith (Crippen), Diana Dixon (Mrs Crippen, known as Belle Elmore) and Yvonne Matthews (Crippen's lover, Ethel Le Neve).

Jerry Smith made a wholly believable Crippen, downtrodden by his glamorous wife's unrealistic stage ambitions, but pleading his innocence to the end.

Sparkling

Diana Dixon was a delight as the dippy southern belle whose theatrical talent lagged way behind her wardrobe, getting the most from the comic interludes, and Yvonne Mathews gave a highly impressive portrayal of Crippen's loyal secretary turned lover.

Mike Whatmore commanded great attention as the music hall chairman and then the judge who finally donned the black cap at the end of Crippen's trial, whilst Scott Robson showed his versatility by taking five different roles, all portrayed in a professional manner.

Good support came from the other leading players - Hazel Cawte, Karen Hull, Phil Street and Maureen Yell - and a special word of praise for Pete Ward, a familiar and oft-seen face on the local stage who impressed as the dour police inspector and Sir Marshall Hall as well as playing the part of St Peter with gusto.

Off stage Penny Bartholomew (piano) and Rosalind Tarry provided the musical accompaniment whilst Terry Smith handled the prompting duties, not an onerous task on the night I attended.

Jenny Wiles' behind the scenes crew included Richad Doney (production assistant), Jean Heppenstall (singing coach), Fred Humphrey and Steve Wilkins (settings), Anthony Hutchings (lighting and sound), Brian Matravers (scene painting), Nettie Wakely (stagehand), Jacqui Ward (stage manager and props), Maureen Yell and Hazel Cawte (costumes).

This was my second visit to the Marine Theatre in a month. In May I saw Lyme Regis Operatic Society's "Me And My Girl", the best amateur show I have ever seen. 3QB's first production was up there among the most enjoyable evening's I have spent for many months.

Both productions, were attended by near sell-out audiences, proving yet again what a wealth of stage talent which there is in Lyme Regis.

There is a limit, of course, to how many shows local performers can commit to in a year, but local talent must surely play an increasing role in the future of the Marine Theatre.

My vision for the future town council

At this, the first meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee of this new council, it is appropriate for me to set out what I am proposing should be our priorities for the council and how I believe we can, in a spirit of co-operation, deliver these in the best interests of our community.

The outcome of the recent election has left us in the enviable position of having a council that is made up of those with a great deal of experience in serving the town, and new councillors, such as myself, who are joining the town council for the first time, bringing with them the energy and fresh outlook that will be needed as we take our town through these challenging times.

I would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute to the hard work and loyal service of those councillors who have left the council, and to say how much I look forward to working with those who were either re-elected or elected for the first time on May 5th.

I'd like to spend some time addressing what I believe should be our priorities for the next 12 months, and the cultural and structural changes we need to put in place to ensure the town council can work effectively in the best interests of our community.

I have discussed with the chairmen of committees and the Mayor how I want to see a council led by strong and accountable committee chairmen. To that end, we will this evening be debating minor changes to the council standing orders to clarify the role of the town clerk, as the council's press officer, and that of committee chairmen as those responsible for announcing and, where necessary, justifying the work of this council.

As part of this I am also recommending that all committee meetings have a standard agenda item of "Chairman's Update", which will provide the chairman the opportunity to give a brief update on the work and priorities of their committee.

At the start of this new council, we need to ensure that our structures allow us to work in the most efficient way, and concentrate the limited resources of members' and officers' time on making decisions that will benefit this town. With this in mind, although not for discussion tonight, I want to announce that I intend to bring back to the next meeting of this committee for debate, and hopefully your approval, a review of our existing committee structure.

Focussed committees

Our committee structures should be transparent, easy to understand and work in such a way that they encourage the people of the town to attend and take part. Each committee should own and manage a clearly defined set of work streams, aimed at improving and developing specific aspects of our town. The general public should find these structures easy to understand and know which committee deals with which area of business, should they wish to attend committee meetings or to lobby members of the committee.

Committees should be focused on making decisions in an open and democratic way, and members of the council should be expected to arrive at meetings fully informed and ready to debate the issues requiring decision on the agenda. It is better that our officers' time is spent providing professional advice to allow members to prepare for the debate of committee, than to spend their time at that committee fielding questions that are ill-informed and unprepared.

Presently, only small numbers of the community attend our meetings, and therefore, other than our excellent local press, the only way in which to communicate with the people of the town is via our newsletter. The newsletter provides an excellent way of communicating with our electorate, and it's therefore vital that we ensure that the content of it is engaging and meaningful.

I want our first newsletter of the new council to give the committee chairmen a chance to introduce themselves and to explain to the community what they see as the immediate priorities for their committee, and I hope that the first newsletter of this new council will be with our electorate very soon.

The newsletter should not be our only way of communicating and providing information to the town. Our present website is, in the parlance, not fit for purpose. With this in mind I have been discussing what needs to be done to complete the redesign of the town council website, something I believe we should see as a priority.

I have also discussed with the town clerk how we can make our meetings more accessible and what support members might require to run "surgeries". I want our council be known for its openness and the ease with which the community can engage with us.

Moving on to planning (in its wider sense) - I believe the council has suffered in the past from not having a strategic plan that sets out the priorities for the council over the forthcoming years. Without such a plan we are at the mercy of events, and as the custodians of such large sums of the town's money I believe it would be grossly irresponsible of us not to plan and prioritise what we are trying to deliver on behalf of the local community.

Engage with town

To develop such a plan, we will need to fully engage with the community, and also the local parish councils, district and county councils. If we are to fully engage, in the best interests of the town, with WDDC, EDDC and DCC, we will need to improve our links and our working relationships with these bodies.

I am a great believer in using what is to hand, not duplicating activities or trying to reinvent the wheel. With this in mind, the excellent work already done by Lyme Regis Development Trust and Lyme Forward on the Local Area Plan, and the update process currently on-going, should form part of this process.

As you will be aware, a number of us shared costs and minimised environmental impact, by putting out a single leaflet during the election. Within that leaflet we made a number of commitments - some of those are addressed by the themes I have already outlined. I would now like to briefly touch on some specifics.

Need for skatepark

The skatepark - this is something that the youth of our town have waited far too long for, to such an extreme effect that when in the near future we open a skatepark for the town, some of those people who originally campaigned for one will see their children benefit from it!

There are a lot of people who live in the town and who visit that think it was real shame that the small facility in the Lister Gardens was removed and never replaced at the time of the coastal works, as it provided an excellent facility for the youth of the town and visitors alike. However we must move on, and another site has been identified in Charmouth Road Car Park, largely due to the diligent work of a very small number of councillors from the previous council.

I have discussed with Councillors Campbell and Jenkin what needs to be done to move this forward. They have reinstated the Skatepark Working Group to fully consult the youth of the town on how they want their facility to look. From this, I want us to very shortly be moving to lodge a planning application with the district council to move the project forward as soon as we possibly can.

Make no mistake, we will honour our commitment to provide a skatepark. I am aware that there may still be some who doubt the value of this project - to them I make this commitment; I am willing to meet with them to discuss their concerns.

I do believe however, that our youth are the future of our town and should not be seen as a minority group. They need our time, our engagement, our commitment and the full support of this council.

Moving on to issues that affect the built environment of our town. Traffic is a major and growing problem in our town and under Councillor Anita Williams' chairmanship I want us to develop the role of the Planning Committee to plan for the town in the wider sense.

With an increased remit, I want the Planning Committee to see how we can deal with these issues. This will include how we manage the problems in Broad Street and around Cobb Gate, and our so-called car-free sea front, and also how we ensure that there is adequate and affordable parking for residents. I will provide more detail on this at our next meeting.

Our seafront is our "shop window" to the world, and its importance to the town cannot be underestimated. We need to use the opportunity of the completion of the tripartite agreement to develop a strategy for its management. This will need to take into account the outstanding land issues at the Monmouth Beach end, and also how we manage the refurbished Marine Parade.

We need to involve all concerned, including our local traders and clubs, to ensure we develop a plan that will protect and develop this vital resource.

One of the really big issues in our town, blighting the lives of some of the most disadvantaged members of our community, is the lack of affordable housing. For sake of clarity, let me be clear when I talk about affordable housing - I mean housing for rent. We need to work with all groups to review how we can increase this type of housing. The lack of it is forcing our young families either to live in unsatisfactory conditions or leave town, this cannot sure this service is available when needed, and is provided to a high standard.

There is much that needs to be done to improve cleanliness and minor maintenance issues around the town. To this end, I am recommending continue. A priority of this council must be to do all in its power to ensure that, as soon as possible, new houses are provided for our young families.

Finally we receive a lot of feedback that our town is not being kept as clean and tidy as it was in the past and as we should all like to see it. We received a lot of complaints about the woeful state of public toilets and I believe that steps taken by the previous council will hopefully address this situation, but we must continue to monitor this closely, and to work with WDDC to ensure that the incoming chair of Operational Management, as a priority, take the lead on this. This will be a complex task and, as with the subject of traffic, there are a lot of shared responsibilities between the town, district and county, but it's something that needs doing if we are to bring the town up to the standards I think we all want to see.

We are about to open the new shelters development and the high standards delivered by this project should be seen as the benchmark for the rest of the town. By that I do not mean we need to throw money at these issues, more that we should ensure that the rest of the seafront and our town looks as good as I am sure the shelters will. To do this we need to develop a rolling maintenance plan to fit in with improved attention to detail regarding day-to-day issues, such as keeping our town clean and tidy.

I am confident that the new chairman will be fully supported in this by the deputy town clerk, as the line manager of our works staff, and by those staff themselves.

There is much to do, and I look forward to working with you all over the next four years to get it done. I am new to this role and welcome input and support from all members, officers and council staff.

I will keep talking to the people of our town to make sure we are representing their interests, and hope you will engage with me to ensure that respect, openness and co-operation are the principles that guide the work of this council.

THE anniversary of the end of the Siege of Lyme was celebrated with a parade and thanksgiving service on Thursday evening.

Organised by Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival Committee, the procession marked the triumph of the town's residents, who fought against Prince Maurice as part of the English Civil War in 1644.

The parade was led from the Baptist Church to Theatre Square by Regatta and Carnival Committee secretary Alan Vian in historical dress, and drummers from Lyme Regis Junior Band.

They were followed by the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, the Reverend Jane Skinner and Councillor Terry O'Grady, Chris Clipson, Lorna Jenkin and Rikey Austin. Members of the Regatta and Carnival Committee also took part in 17th century dress.

After arriving at Theatre Square, prayers were made by the Reverend Skinner and the Mayor spoke of the history of the event.

She said that Lyme Regis was a town that was "proud of its history and confident in its future".

Mr Vian also spoke about the history of the Siege of Lyme and announced that the committee hoped to make the celebrations an all-day event in 2012, as the anniversary fell on a Saturday. Plans include a visit from Taunton Garrison and a day of re-enactments.

Promoting events

LYME Regis Town Council hopes to improve links with the Regatta and Carnival Committee and the RNLI Guild to and help promote summer events on the town's website.

LymeNET employee Bob Brooker, who manages the official town website, reported at last week's Tourism and Advertising Sub-Committee that the two organisations were unwilling share details of Regatta and Carnival Week and Lifeboat Week because they feared it would result in decreased programme sales.

Mr Brooker said he was keen to promote the events on the diary section of the website. However, he felt his ideas were not met with a good reaction after attending a Regatta and Carnival Committee meeting.

Councillor Rikey Austin offered to contact chairman of the Regatta and Carnival Committee, Teresa Evemy, and Rob Michael of the RNLI Guild to discuss the matter further.

Delightful parade

■ WHAT a delight to have a parade to celebrate the relief of Lyme on June 16th.

What a shame, however, that the parade did not go on to Davey Fort, the site of the last successful redoubt of Parliamentarian resistance in the town.

I'm sure the good Captain would then have stopped spinning after the Royalist invasion of April 29th!

Sports stars turn out for Lee

■ FAMILY GATHERING: Jack and Sally Caddy with sons Lee, Russell, grandson Jonathan and Russell's partner, Taina Wells

SOME of the cream of Lyme Regis' sporting fraternity over the past 30 years turned out in force to celebrate Lee Caddy's 50th birthday at a black tie function at Lyme Regis Golf Club.

Lee won every honour going in a long footballing career with Lyme Regis FC and then worked tirelessly as a committee member, including a two-year spell as club chairman at the Davey Fort. He has also been a keen golfer for many years.

The celebration of his 50th birthday, organised by his girlfriend, photographer Lynnette Ravenscroft, brought together many ex-players and golfing colleagues.

A raffle and a game of heads and tails raised £600 for the refurbishment fund at the Davey Fort.

Lee commented: "It was a great night and I was pleased that so many of my former playing colleagues were able to be present."

Change there will definitely be

THEY promised change - and change there will undoubtedly be.

Our six new councillors are now embedded and the election of the various committee chairmanships and vice-chairmanships completed.

Five out of the six new faces have taken positions of responsibility, with Mark Gage leading the pack with the top job of chairing the influential Strategy and Policy Committee.

Anita Williams has taken charge of the newly named Planning and Highways Committee and Chris Clipson is the new chairman of Operational Management Sub-Committee, with Terry O'Grady his deputy. Rikey Austin has taken on the role of vice-chairman of the Tourism and Advertising Sub-Committee.

With Lorna Jenkin chairing two committees, Community Development Partnership and Tourism and Ad-

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

vertising, and Lucy Campbell accepting the vice-ciranship of Strategy and Policy, that leaves former mayor Michael Ellis, former policy chairman Owen Lovell, and long-serving Barbara Austin and Ann Bradbury without any specific roles.

District councillor Daryl Turner (deputy mayor) and George Symonds do not have any committee roles to ensure there are no pre-determination issues in the job of representing Lyme on West Dorset District Council.

In the past it has always been the case that new councillors would get their knees brown before taking on the role of chairing a committee.

This has particularly been the case with the appointment of chairman of the main decision-making committee - now called Strategy and Policy. This chairmanship has always gone to one of the council's most senior and experienced members.

In fact, I can't remember a new councillor ever getting this job within days of being elected, but that's the fate that has fallen to Mark Gage.

You will note, however, in our 60 Seconds interview on page two, that Mark has had previous local government experience, having served as a councillor in West London for eight years. So he's no stranger to local government.

Mark took the opportunity at his first meeting as chairman of Strategy and Policy last week to read a statement which laid out his vision for the future of the town council.

It was well prepared and presented, despite the fact that my mobile phone went off (unforgivable) half way through possibly the most important speech Mark has made for some time.

Mark, clearly aware that there has been some animosity between the new and the old guard, recognised the great contribution that the former councillors who were not returned to office in last month's election had made to the running of the town over the years. But he made it clear that a new dawn was rising and that he expected the new council to pull together and deliver the agenda for change the town demanded through the ballot box.

It was also a bold and brave statement in places, with a commitment given that the new council will deliver the skatepark for which the young people of Lyme have waited so long.

You can read Mark's statement in full on page 12 and there are many who will be encouraged by what he has to say.

If I had to mark it I would give Mark 8+ out of ten.

Making such a statement was certainly a departure from the norm, with the mayor usually laying out the agenda for the future.

But Sally Holman will have the chance to set out her stall for the next couple of years at the ancient mayor-making ceremony in the Guildhall tomorrow (Thursday) evening.

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

WHEN I went down to the Cobb on Sunday morning I could not help thinking that any foreign visitors to Lyme could have been forgiven for thinking they had landed on the wrong side of the channel.

For they were greeted by a line of 407 people singing "Frere Jacques" on the sea wall made famous by Meryl Streep in the film "The French Lieutenant's Woman".

It was, of course, the very clever idea, which stemmed from the Woodroffe School, of creating a new world record for the most people singing the classic French children's song to promote The Hub's attempt to win £60,000 in the Jubilee People's Millions. With the 407 supporters braving the rain (it poured down just as Marcus and Diana Dixon from the Development Trust and town crier Phil Street, started the singing but they kept going, frantically encouraged by Hub project leader Fran Williams.

Lyme now has a great opportunity of winning £60,000 for The Hub by phoning a special number next Tuesday. That number will not be released until 9am that day and an army of volunteers are being recruited to make sure the number is known by the widest possible audience in and around Lyme.

Everyone can phone ten times from as many different phones as they can access. I am told that to be sure of winning we need possibly as many as 10,000 calls to beat Portland Gig Club to the booty.

Come on, we can do it!

Perhaps I'd better stick to the leotard

Throughout the spring and summer months View From Reporter TOM GLOVER is welcoming all challenges for this new column 'Take on Tom'. If your club, group or organisation would like to be the focus of this weekly column and could put Tom to the test then email him at tom@pemedial.co.uk or phone 01297 446154.

This week Tom joined members of the BRIDPORT AND WEST DORSET CLUB to take them on at pub sports.

AFTER a couple of weeks of twinkled dancing it was time to let my alpha male side out for this challenge as I drank pints, threw darts and knocked down skittles.

Hidden away in Bridport town centre, behind a bookshop and an office, many residents are oblivious to the existence of one of the town's best-kept secrets - the Bridport and West Dorset Club.

If you do stumble across it you will be greeted with a smile, the club are always on the hunt for new members and most who do find it come back time and time again.

The club has a relaxed atmosphere, there's always something to keep you entertained and, in true "Cheers" style, it's a place where everyone knows your name.

I discovered the club as a sixth former and spent many evenings there brushing up my snooker skills and my manly banter.

I only stopped going after a lengthy snooker match with my good friend Rob Hanson got perilously close to him beating me. I couldn't handle it, I made my excuses, we went to university and the scores still hang in the balance at 13-13.

I made my return this week with hopes of winning at least one challenge. My first of the night was on the green baize of the snooker table. My namesake, Tom "The Tornado" Rutland was already warming up when I arrived. In true pub sports style I have nicknamed my opponents, it makes them sound more professional and me less incompetent when I lose.

I started well with a few safety shots that Steve Davis would be proud of but Tom soon took charge. My highest break of the night being five, when Tom fouled on the blue.

I kept it close to the end with Tom needing the pink to guarantee the win but I eventually lost 46-24.

Next up I went onto table skittles where I played team captain Nick "Captain Crusher" Greenhough. We played a singles match, scoring down from 101.

The game is surprisingly skilful and I only had time to learn a couple of basic techniques before our match.

I didn't embarrass myself but I still had 17 left to get rid of when Nick cleared the table one last time.

Two down and two losses, it wasn't looking good. I didn't expect things to get better with the darts either. I was paired up with my snooker challenger Tom as we took on Mark "The Shark" Carey and Craig "The Killer" Collins.

Now when you score higher on the snooker table then you do on the darts board you are either very good at snooker or very bad at darts. I was the latter. I have suspicions that Tom's wayward darts were part of a ploy to sabotage my challenge, but I wasn't doing much to help myself.

I came good towards the end, hitting the bullseye and scoring 75. On a 1980's TV game show that could have won me a speedboat, or at least a fitted kitchen, unfortunately, on this night, it was a case of too little too late. Mark and Craig showed their class by checking out on double one, while Tom and I still had 80 left to score.

Next was my final solo challenge of the evening-pool.

In my younger days I had played for the BWDC pool team so I was quietly confident. As I entered the pool room the memories of pork pies cut into quarters and sandwiches that had curled at the edges came flooding back. I won the toss, two out of three on the evening, which proved to be my biggest success, and chose to break.

I potted four balls off the break and had victory in my sights. Unfortunately my opponent, Sam "Steady-hand" Lovelace, had other ideas.

Sam had kindly offered to referee my snooker match, I now know he was just checking out my cueing action and assessing my shot choices.

After a few safety shots I made a mistake and he cleared up in double quick time. I'd lost four out of four, I was on the ropes but not defeated, we moved out to the back room and onto the skittle alley.

New club President Vanessa Jessopp, sorted out the teams and I went up first. We played four hands, I top scored for my side with 21, but it wasn't to be. Five games, five losses.

DOWN BUT NOT OUT: Tom along with his challengers for the evening at the Bridport and West Dorset Club

I fear my column may be starting to take its toll on me. I will soon have to put away my snooker cue and darts for good and pick up my leg warmers and a leotard.

Despite a thorough thrashing in everything from snooker to skittles though it was an enjoyable night and we all had a laugh.

As a consolation gesture

Vanessa renewed my membership and I promised I'd be back, hopefully to finally finish off my best of 35 match with Rob "Lucky Shot" Hanson.

FOR next week's column I will join the Wessex Morris Men for a series of dances in and around Weymouth. If you would like to witness my attempts, in full Morris dance attire, I will be appearing at the following venues next Monday, June 27th. The Smugglers Inn, Osmington at 7:30pm, Bridge Inn, Preston at 8:15pm and the Springhead, Sutton Poyntz at 9pm.

Discover the fantastic businesses on offer in Charmouth

The beautiful coastal village of Charmouth has some fantastic shops and businesses to visit for a day out or just to purchase your daily essentials. Now with easy free one hour parking in the village centre you will have no trouble popping over to browse the lovely shops, cafes and restaurants the village has to offer.

Many unbeatable offers at Nisa!

SURPRISE IN STORE

From the outside Charmouth Stores does not prepare you for what you will find inside. Carol and Phil Tritton and their son Alex stock around 4500 different products and also run a great range of offers which match or even beat the supermarkets.

LOCAL SUPPLIERS

This year, they have focussed on introducing new local products to the range. A wide choice of Lyme Bay Wines and Jack Ratt cider, ales from the Lyme Regis Mighty Hop brewery and wine from the Furleigh Estate near Bridport have all been added recently, as well as Jessica's cakes from Bridport. Another newcomer is a range of excellent preserves and traditional sweets under the Charmouth Stores name.

UNBEATABLE OFFERS

Being a Nisa store, Charmouth Stores can run offers that often rival the supermarkets. At present over 150 products are on offer as well as the many '2 for' offers on Heritage products (Nisa's high quality own brand).

ALWAYS WELCOME

As well as a friendly welcome to all customers, they offer free local deliveries on Thursdays for those who find it hard to shop in person

EASIER TO PARK

The new 1 hour parking restriction in Charmouth centre now makes it much easier to pop into the shops than before so why not come and see Charmouth Stores for yourself!

"I came in for a present for my friend, and I've ended up buying 2 presents and 3 things for me!"

That's what tends to happen in Breeze. There's so much to choose from in Carol's tiny shop - the longer you linger, the more you see.

This summer's collection of accessories has been attracting lots of attention, with beautiful lace scarves, Bill Brown striped canvas bags and Gringo versatile knitwear cardigans in gorgeous colours.

There's lots more besides, including silver and costume jewellery, sumptuous silk scarves and fun bags. For kids there are funky felt bags and purses, fairies and finger puppets.

For the home, choose from mosaic mirrors, colourful pottery and glassware, Cornish slate clocks and coasters, or unique driftwood lamps made by local craftsman Jamie Butcher.

The collection is constantly evolving, so there is always something new to discover. Carol believes in keeping prices realistic, so go ahead, once you've chosen your gifts, treat yourself to something too!

Popular fish and chip shop and pizzeria in the heart of Charmouth fish from sustainable waters. Popular Cod and Haddock but with more adventurous additions of Hake, Basa, Calamari, Local Crab Cakes and Sardines.

"We are delighted with the reputation we have built in the short time we have been here," said Sue. "We receive constant compliments, we are told that our fish and chips are 'the best in the west,' 'the best in the UK' even 'the best we have ever eaten!' Quality is so important to us, we are very particular about our raw ingredients, we select only the best fish, we fry in the highest quality oil, which is regularly filtered and refreshed, along with a light crisp batter and the result speaks for itself".

The Fish Bar is also a

Pizzeria, with a choice of 12 mouth watering Pizzas, in three sizes prepared to order, cooked in a traditional stone based oven.

On the menu you will also find local faggots, pies, sausages, curries, jacket potatoes, griddle burgers and children's meals.

Avoid waiting, phone your order through before 5pm and Charmouth Fish Bar Take Away will have your order waiting for you to collect at a convenient time.

Or why not dine in the family restaurant

On the back of the success of the take away Sue and Martin have developed a popular, family dining experience in their restaurant. This warm modern restaurant has seating both inside and out. With comfy sofas around some tables for lunching with friends, to cosy tables for two to dine, the restaurant gives its customers the best of both worlds.

The menu features their excellent Fish meals – served on newspaper, freshly prepared pizzas, curries, classic dishes such as Lasagne and 'bistro style' specials, boasting a selection of starters and delicious desserts, to hot and cold paninis, baguettes, salads, jacket potatoes and cakes for lighter meals and lunches.

Menus for eating in and taking away are all very reasonably priced. The restaurant is licensed, so you can enjoy wine by the glass or bottle, local beers and ciders, or a shot of your favourite spirit to accompany your meal.

Charmouth Fish Bar and Pizzeria really does have a lot to offer all diners, why not book a table and enjoy an evening out or if you are looking forward to an evening in front of the TV why not try traditional fish and chips or one of their delicious pizzas to take away.

A real treasure trove with prices you'll love

Possibly the first thing you notice at 'Rock Follies' is the amazing pair of white shoes in the window that have been photographed hundreds of times by amateur and professionals alike.

Once inside 'Follies', before even looking at the fabulous stock, there are over 200 unusual and antique handbags covering every spare inch of the wall.

When moving to Charmouth and opening 'Rock Follies' 16 years ago, Jaq Mitchell - a former dancer and air stewardess - had no experience in the retail trade, but now loves stocking the shop to bursting with fun and formal wear, beach wear, always lots of goodies for big girls, jewellery, Indian saris and clothes. Male rails for leather jackets and holiday wear. All sizes of Converse direct from the factory.

A real treasure trove with prices you'll love. Come and see for yourself.

A small, friendly salon bringing you good service and hair dressing

▲ Lesley and Michelle who are happy to help you at Devonedge Hairdressers

Lesley of Devonedge is celebrating 10 years of being open in Charmouth. They are a small friendly salon bringing good service and hair dressing at a reasonable cost to both ladies and gentlemen. They also offer a wedding hair service where the bride and bridesmaids can either have their hair put up in the salon or in the comfort of their own home.

On offer is a large range of L'Oréal products including INOA ammonia free colouring and new INOA supreme. Discover how to look 10 years younger. They also offer a L'Oréal retail service where customers can enjoy the best products in your home, by taking your pick of salon quality shampoos and treatments.

Great Blooming Tea Party

Tea and cakes were served all week at Devonedge plus a grand draw was held on Saturday 18th June, they raised £321.50 for Marie Curie nurses. They would like to thank all their clients and cake makers for their support.

Scrumptious treats from Love Chocolate

New to Charmouth this year is Love Chocolate, a little shop which will make all chocolate lovers' mouths water!

Owners husband and wife team Sue and Martin Harvey opened the shop as they have a real passion for good quality chocolate. Before moving to Charmouth they ran a deli where they sold their own homemade chocolates and fudge and built a good understanding of the fine chocolate makers in both the UK and Belgium.

Having settled in Charmouth, Love Chocolate has given them an opportunity to regenerate their passion and interest. The delightful shop is filled with beautiful quality chocolates and truffles from a family run chocolate house in Belgium, chocolate bars from Cornwall, and all variety of chocolate treats from the UK. You will also find old fashioned traditional sweets from Dorset, nut brittle, coconut ice, liquorice, imported Turkish Delight, and much more to choose from.

After the first six months of trading Sue & Martin are delighted with the response. 'We have many customers returning to enjoy both fabulous quality chocolates and our wonderful fudge from Cornwall. The fudge is delicious and proving so popular we have added a second display to extend our range' says

Sue.

There are great finds for youngsters or the young at heart too; chocolate animals, chocolate fish, chocolate dinosaurs, chocolate pizza, lots of fun choices.

The shop is ideal for gift purchases, simply select exactly what the recipient enjoys, from vast selection of tempting treats and have it personalised and wrapped for you.

So why not pop in and see what delicious and unique goodies they have today.

SOUTH WEST REGION PISTOL SQUAD

email: info@swrps.org.uk

website: www.swrps.org.uk

The South West Region Pistol Squad aims to develop our future Champions by feeding talented shooters into the Team England National Pistol Squad and Team GB Pistol Squad.

Over the past 7-months our dedicated team of volunteers have been preparing the ground for the arrival of athletes. This has been a period of personal development and strategic planning; with most recently the appointment of a Regional Pistol Squad Manager. Alongside the Regional Squad we are establishing Development Squads across the Region, the first of these is at Plymouth College.

For our training, we are fortunate to have the use of the Target Sports Centre, Charmouth, Dorset; which currently has two ranges housed in an all weather structure that used to be the A35 road tunnel before the Charmouth bypass was constructed. There is a café, training room and gunsmiths on site. In the New Year two new room ranges will be available for use, one of which will be formatted for competition, making it ideal for training.

This facility is made available by the generosity of the owner Richard Clist who is also a key member of our coaching team. We are also grateful to RUAG for sponsorship with RWS ammunition.

SWRPS has six coaches, one of who is an ISSF Judge and all are experienced and successful shooting competitors with NSRA coaching qualifications.

All of the hard work culminated in the Squad's first training weekend on 21st-22nd May. Thirteen athletes signed up to join SWRPS, comprising juniors and seniors from different walks of life and shooting experience. Nonetheless, all of our Squad share a common ambition to compete at the highest levels.

SWRPS is a training academy and as such is a transit camp between club level competition and Team England. We believe that an athlete's motivation, ambition and willingness to learn are more important than their current ability when they join the Squad. One of our athletes, Simon Gibbard, began training in January following a 13-year break from pistol shooting. Simon has worked hard and entered his first competition at the BPC meeting in April achieving 4th place with a score of 547 ex 600 in precision Air Pistol and 4th place in the 25m Rapid Fire event. He is applying to join the British Pistol Club having achieved a qualifying score at his first competition and we will be introducing him to Tom Redhead, National Coach, as a rising star. Andy Coleman, another of our athletes achieved a 1st place and Gold medal at the recent Okehampton meeting with a score of 512 ex 600. Another success came with a junior pistol shooter, Mollie Hansford, who is being trained by a SWRPS Coach, when she recently won her Pony Club Tetrathlon event with a Personal Best.

At this first weekend, we focused on the precision pistol technique and the Squad were provided with a training plan, which is a composite of ideas from Lanny Bassham, Tom Redhead and the NSRA. We coached them in the Workcycle for precision pistol shooting developed by Tom Redhead and used with the Team England National Squad and now published in the new NSRA Pistol Instructors Manual. They worked hard over the two-days and all of the Squad showed improvements in their performances and finished the weekend refreshed and inspired.

SWRPS is a Training Academy and as such we are working with our athletes to develop and hone their skills in preparation for them trying out for Team England. One of the routes they the delight of our athletes.

On the Sunday, we were joined by the first of our experts who taught the Squad the benefits of nutrition for improving performance as well as general health and well being. Our other experts include a Physical Fitness Trainer, Sports Masseuse and Optometrist; all of whom will be invited to deliver learning at future training weekends.

Holiday home insurance

After investing a substantial amount of capital in a holiday home it is extremely important to protect your investment with an insurance policy specifically designed for the purpose.

At David Upshall Insurance Services we recognised this need, and in conjunction with Liverpool Victoria we are now able to offer a Holiday Home Insurance designed to accommodate the landlord's needs.

Liverpool Victoria is a large reputable insurer giving us excellent support in both arranging and administering the scheme, and together we aim to provide a professional service with competitive premiums.

The cover provided by the policy includes as standard, accidental damage, £5 million landlords liability, £10 million employers liability and if the property was to become empty a sixty day period before it is deemed to be unoccupied. In addition to the buildings cover we can include the landlord's contents, again on an accidental damage basis.

We have created an additional service to assist holiday home owners; this is in the form of a specifically dedicated website at www.holidayhomenews.co.uk the website is designed to give advice to landlords and information to visitors. If you are a landlord and do not use the services of an agent you may advertise your property with a picture and a description completely free of charge on our website.

Visit our site and call us to discuss your needs, on 01305 268883.

David Upshall Insurance Services are authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority.

Bring back the traditional English afternoon tea time!

Afternoon tea at the Old Tea House 'Bring back the traditional English tea time!' 'Relax and make time for tea.'

This is how Country Living Magazine described this tea house built in 1635. Afternoon tea bridges the divide between young and old, everyone from small children to grandparents enjoys teatime.

The Ritz is unbeatable for its high teas and ambience, but our wonderful tea house is right here on your doorstep in Dorchester waiting to embrace and delight you with the most wonderful home made scones and tea time treats.

There are 2 or 3 tiers to the cake stands, with a selection of finger sandwiches, homemade cakes, eclairs and scones, with tea or freshly ground coffee. There is also tea-cakes, crumpets and homemade soups just waiting to be shared with you, with roast dinners and scrumptious puddings on Sunday.

Come along, relax and enjoy one of Dorset's most beautiful and most haunted tea rooms. A warm welcome awaits you so don't hesitate to revive this great British tradition of high, afternoon and cream teas. Best of British!

Dorchester Curiosity Centre opens its doors

THE latest business to open its doors in the county town, the Dorchester Curiosity Centre, welcomed members of the public to its first trading day at the weekend. With both indoor and outdoor trading areas, the Centre aims to sell antiques, modern and retro furniture shabby, chic, old and new art, jewellery, accessories, crafts, unusual gifts, organic food, plants and much, much more. Amongst the stalls busy trading on its first Saturday, visitors could buy almost anything from coal scuttles to garden statues and cinema posters to rustic tables and chairs. Fresh cherries were on offer along with burgers and sausages from Clayford Farm Produce, and granite, slate and marble fireplaces made to order. There were wonderful displays by Zavian Vintage Interiors, and the stunningly elegant, wearable vintage clothing of Mary Sharp. And the Old Tea House came along with the most delicious cup cakes, plain and fruit scones, lemon drizzle, and ginger cake – and a lovely cup of tea or coffee to wash it down. There is also a selection of cabinets to rent and the opportunity to have furniture and other valuable items such as Rolex and Cartier watches sold on a commission basis.

Proprietor Dean is still looking for more table top sellers, both for midweek and the weekends. And with ample free parking available, he hopes this is an offer local traders will grab with both hands. Saturday, 25th June sees his first Vintage Fair/Funday for the kids, as an event he hopes to hold once a month and he will be actively encouraging people to hold art exhibitions, wine tastings and other events in an effort to bring the wider community to the Dorchester Curiosity Centre. If you would like to discuss selling or trading, or would like to know more about the Centre, you can call Dean on 07956 540047 or 01305 251886. Alternatively you can email Dean on dsouter-ces@live.co.uk

F.A.O all cleaners – be aware of the dangers associated with your job!

If you are a cleaner or an employer employing a cleaner you would do well to pay attention to this article because it could save you from being sued.

PAUL EYRES GENERAL CLEANING SERVICES

Enhanced CRB
8 years cleaning experience acquired as an employee responsible for Mechanic's workshop for Mercedes Benz of Dorchester. Theatres, Critical Care and Radiotherapy units for Royal Preston Hospital (including M.R.S.A. cleans). Doctor's residences for Dorset County Hospital. Mothercare of Dorchester. pauleyresgeneralcleaningservices@hotmail.co.uk

Two cases were brought to the Health and Safety Executive's attention to demonstrate this issue well.

One company were found to have a cleaner who was using fairy liquid to clean a floor simply because it was inconvenient for the cleaner to use the proper cleaning product which was located elsewhere in the building. Hence people were slipping at a very alarming rate. This danger was then remedied by storing the right product on each floor in the building so the cleaner was able to access the proper product when required.

Another Fast Food Company who was indeed very proactive regarding cleaning and Health and Safety matters were found to have caused the exact opposite result they had hoped to have achieved. This was because they mopped up a spillage about the size of a fifty-pence piece along with the surrounding area and then rung the mop out and mop dried the areas again. A test was carried out and it was found that the dry mopped area took seven minutes to dry during which the floor was still very slippery. A paper towel would have sufficed in this instance and would have eliminated the danger.

Cleaners and companies that employ cleaners need to realise that they have a duty of care to anyone who could be reasonably viewed to be affected by their actions, whether it be work colleagues, customers, contract workers, delivery and postal workers or others. Cleaners who are employed should realise that they can be found personally liable under Tort law for breach of a duty of care, even if it is more likely that the company they work for will be liable under the rules of vicarious liability. Anyone involved in cleaning work (either directly or indirectly) whether you are an employee, supervisor, manager, or contract cleaner need to realise the potential legal issues regarding their actions. If in any doubt as to whether a hazard exists, those responsible must take reasonable steps such as: using warning signs, notifying line managers, or even if just a verbal communication to anyone who could be affected by a potential risk such as work colleagues or customers. If you have any doubts please contact the Health and Safety Executive for further guidance.

Thanks, Paul of Paul Eyres General Cleaning Services. With Thanks to the Health and Safety Executive

Caldicot Choir to give special performance

A MALE voice choir singing at a wedding in Broadwindsor on June 25th have offered to give a fund raising performance in the evening for the Church Fabric Fund.

The Caldicot Choir is renowned across England, Wales and many countries across the world.

The Choir was formed in 1963 in the small town of Caldicot, Monmouthshire, between Chepstow and Newport, by men who moved to the area from all over Wales, to man the furnaces and mills of the new steel-works at Llanwern.

The choir has raised thousands of pounds for charities and good causes over the years and they are winners of many major competitions including the National Eisteddfod.

Their concert programme includes major national venues as well as support to small local charities.

The Broadwindsor concert starts at 7.30pm at St John the Baptist Church, Broadwindsor. Tickets cost £8 (to include a soft drink and nibbles) and can be obtained by calling 01308 868427 or the Church Office in Beaminster on 01308 862230.

Something French to launch debut EP 'Runaway'

HAVING made a name for themselves around the area's pubs and clubs over the last few months, local three-piece Something French are readying the release of their debut CD, Runaway.

The band's line-up was finalised in March and they checked into Broadwater Studios, near Exeter, for their first recording sessions last month.

The resulting effort – an EP – boasts three originals and a surprise cover, rave anthem 'Pretty Green Eyes', popularised by Ultrabeat in 2003. Well, it might not be that much of a surprise for those that have seen the band play live – they've got a habit of adding some rock finesse to the odd pop gem. But happy hardcore? Stripped down and re-imagined, the song becomes a catchy guitar ditty that fits in perfectly with the other material on offer here.

But it's the originals most people will be taken with, and the three such compositions on show here hint at many of the band's influences. There's no doubt that Britpop was the guiding light for the three guys in the band, but so too grunge and even upbeat ska.

The disc kicks off with 'Trying Too Hard'. This opening gambit begins with some gentle, chiming guitars before picking up a headwind and turning into a blistering rocker.

'In My Head' sees lead singer Rory Holmes Brocken channelling the nasally vocals of Green Day's Billie Joe Armstrong. It's an all out thumper of a tune that might even owe a little to Reel Big Fish party piece 'Beer'.

Title track 'Runaway' is up next. For me it's the strongest track; with jarring guitars and Rob Larcombe's infectious bass line, Ben Gooding's industrial strength drums only make the tune even better. If the band had opted to go with a single instead of an EP, this would undoubtedly have been track one.

All in all a great introduction to a band clearly gagging to get back into the studio to lay down an ever increasing bag of original material.

The band launch the EP with a gig at The Royal Standard, Lyme Regis this Saturday (June 25th).

From Brooklyn to Bridport

BRIDPORT'S newest/oldest theatre, The Lyric, is delighted to present a UK premiere all the way from New York City! Clowning company Logic Limited Ltd. will be travelling to Bridport with their new show Tivo: La Resistance from June 30th to July 9th.

Logic Limited, Ltd. can boast theatrical credits ranging from Broadway to Cirque du Soleil, and their mission is to make you laugh or break your heart trying! Don't miss this hilarious, covert, clandestine meeting of 'La Resistance'. But shhh, it's top secret!

Niki McCretton, co-owner of The Lyric, saw the company perform while she was in Brooklyn, New York earlier this year and says, "The show was brilliant and I was really keen to invite Logic Limited LTD over here to perform. Their work is fresh and surprising and it is great to be able to bring innovative, international theatre to Bridport. Our town is so vibrant and I'm sure the actors will be really welcomed here. We hope this will be the start of presenting new and extraordinary theatre at the Lyric".

The company are in-residence for two weeks and will also be teaching their skills to local students and running a master-class. The show is for adults and those over 12.

Tivo: La Resistance is at 8pm (doors opening 7.30pm)
Dates are: Thursday, June 30th - Welcoming Show and live music in foyer, late bar and meet the company; Friday, July 1st; Saturday, July 2nd including late bar/food and meet the company; Thursday, July 7th including post show talk; Friday, July 8th including post show talk; Saturday July 9th

Tickets are £8 from Bridport Music, The Bookshop and Fruits of The Earth or from The Lyric Theatre, Barrack Street, Bridport DT6 3LX. Tel 01308 423951 or email tickets@the-lyric.com

One of the performers Sandi Carol will also be leading a master-class in clowning for anyone who is keen to explore the essential elements of clown and performing comedy. The session is 2 – 5pm on Saturday 2nd July for adults 16+ and costs £15. Limited places please call the Lyric to book.

Find the Lyric Theatre on facebook – www.facebook.com/thelyrictheatre

HOWL SHOWCASE

ELIJAH and Ava Wolf have teamed up with River Cottage Canteen, Axminster to put on another 'Howl Showcase' of local musical talent, this time focusing on an eclectic mix of some of the best duo's in the south west as found at Howl Open Mic nights run by Elijah Wolf.

Once again the emphasis is on local musicians and songwriters performing their own original material.

"The first Howl showcase in April was a great success", says Elijah, "and its fantastic to know that people in the area have an appetite for original material and a desire to support local musicians. It's also great to be doing it at a unique venue such a River Cottage Canteen."

Acts include: Elijah and Ava Wolf, The Dub Liberators, Shellys Elbows, Bohmarie and Declan Duffy and Lauren Glover amongst others.

Tickets are £10.00 with nibbles included in the price. Tickets can be bought directly from River Cottage Canteen Bridport Music, Axe Music, online at River Cottage, or directly from Elijah Wolf.

CELEBRATE MID-SUMMER WITH CAPTAIN THUNDERBOLT!

THE Beaminster Festival gets off to a lightening start on Friday, June 24th with a family Ceilidh hosted by The Captain Thunderbolt Band together with Alan Twelvtree – the best caller in the West Country! Their unique English sound and rhythmic range of music are just perfect for jigs, polkas, reels, waltzes and hornpipes – guaranteed to get everyone up and dancing. Feast on pizzas from the Pizza Jalopy and Paulo and Lucia's delicious churros and chocolate goodies washed down with local cider.

A mid-summer Eclipse!

BEAMINSTER Festival is mounting its own Eclipse on Monday, June 27th at noon!

Joy Smith and Layil Barr, also known as Eclipse, are returning to the West Country by popular demand with their new programme of Celtic music and story-telling. With extravagant costumes and dramatic staging, the girls' title for their new show is somewhat enigmatic: Sisters, Sailors and Rebellious Harpers - this event must not be missed!

Tickets are £7 from the Beaminster Festival Box Office, Yarn Barton Centre, Beaminster tel: 01308 862 943 and email: beamfestbooking@btinternet.com

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

I WONDER if anyone will write a poem about me when I die; I rather doubt it. When Sara Teasdale took her own life in 1933, one of her friends and admirers, the Ohio writer Minnie Hite Moody (1900-1993), wrote this.

IN MEMORY OF SARA TEASDALE

"All that was mind shall have been put to sleep,
You said, and so it is. Sleep doubly well.
Let the heart find a refuge still and deep
In sweeter places than the tongue can tell;
Even your golden tongue, whose song shall never
Be less than music on the morning air,
Or wings upon the summer wind forever,
Or wistful laughter blown from anywhere...
"All that was mortal shall be burned away,"
You said, unreckoning the subtler fire
Of singing spirit that shall not gainsay
The echoes from an everlasting lyre...
Or did you know that pain and transient breath
Are all a poet loses -- meeting Death?

Several readers have told me they liked the Sara Teasdale poems that we featured at the beginning of June, so I have selected some more of her poetry for your pleasure.

BARTER

Life has loveliness to sell,
All beautiful and splendid things,
Blue waves whitened on a cliff,

Soaring fire that sways and sings,
And children's faces looking up,
Holding wonder like a cup.

Life has loveliness to sell,
Music like the curve of gold,
Scent of pine trees in the rain,
Eyes that love you, arms that hold,
And for your spirit's still delight,
Holy thoughts that star the night.

Spend all you have for loveliness,
Buy it and never count the cost;
For one white singing hour of peace
Count many a year of strife well lost,
And for a breath of ecstasy
Give all you have been, or could be.

This next poem was written whilst looking out of a hospital window.

OPEN WINDOWS

Out of the window a sea of green trees
Lift their soft boughs like the arms of a dancer;
They beckon and call me, "Come out in the sun!"
But I cannot answer.

I am alone with Weakness and Pain,
Sick abed and June is going,
I cannot keep her, she hurries by
With the silver-green of her garments blowing.

Men and women pass in the street
Glad of the shining sapphire weather,
But we know more of it than they,
Pain and I together.

They are the runners in the sun,
Breathless and blinded by the race,
But we are watchers in the shade
Who speak with Wonder face to face.

This closing little verse comes from Sara's 1933 collection 'Strange Victory'.

AGE

Brooks sing in the spring
And in the summer cease;
I who sang in my youth
Now hold my peace;
Youth is a noisy stream
Chattering over the ground,
But the sad wisdom of age
Wells up without sound.

NOT SO SECRET SISTERS

LAURA Rogers and Lydia Rogers are The Secret Sisters, an American country duo from Alabama currently earning great respect on the British music scene after appearing on Jools Holland earlier this year. The sisters adorned the cover of the Sunday Times Culture magazine just last month with an article that compared their style and talent to both the Everly Brothers and the Andrews Sisters.

The Secret Sisters' incredible story is as simple and true as the effortless harmonies that got them here. Fortified by an airtight familial camaraderie – "a love of music from all sides" gushes Laura – "our father, our mother's side of the family, her mother and father – our church...all our cousins..." and emboldened with a zeal for country music and a knowledgeable repertoire of the American canon of classic recordings, it took an impromptu Nashville audition by Laura to bring their incredible talents into focus. Lydia showed up later, and when the two were asked to sing together, all the music business representatives present realized the mission was a simple one: To capture this abundance of raw talent in its purest form.

Recorded in Nashville in a mere two weeks in legendary Blackbird studios, helmed by acclaimed producer Dave Cobb and T Bone Burnett serving as the Executive Producer, their debut album is a guileless, rapturous mixture of roots-ified pop, includes classics like "Why Don't Ya Love Me?" and

"Why Baby Why." The album was recorded the same way it would have been recorded in the 1950s. No computers or digital equipment were even allowed near the sessions in an effort to capture the sisters' stunning vocal prowess 'as is.' "The girls were able to step up and deliver just as we first heard them," says Cobb. "They possess that rarest quality of being able to convert their magic exactly as it comes across. We didn't have to do anything but bring the band in."

Catch The Secret Sisters live at the Electric Palace on Friday, September 2nd for what promises to be a fantastic evening of real talent and music. Tickets on sale now for £10 from Bridport Tourist Info Centre 01308 424901

THIS WEEK'S
NEW RELEASESBRIDESMAIDS ¹⁵

ANNIE (Kristen Wiig), is a maid of honor whose life unravels as she leads her best friend, Lillian (Maya Rudolph), and a group of colorful bridesmaids (Rose Byrne, Melissa McCarthy, Wendi McLendon-Covey and Ellie Kemper) on a wild ride down the road to matrimony. Annie's life is a mess. But when she finds out her lifetime best friend is engaged, she simply must serve as Lillian's maid of honor. Though lovelorn and broke, Annie bluffs her way through the expensive and bizarre rituals. With one chance to get it perfect, she'll show Lillian and her bridesmaids just how far you'll go for someone you love.

THE FIRST GRADER ^{12A}

SET in a mountain village in Kenya the film tells the remarkable true and uplifting story of a proud 84-year-old Mau Mau veteran who is determined to seize his last chance to learn to read and write - and so ends up joining a class alongside six year-olds. Together he and his young teacher face fierce resistance, but ultimately they win through - and also find a new way of overcoming the burdens of the colonial past.

TRANSFORMERS: DARK OF THE MOON ^{12A}

THE Autobots Bumblebee, Ratchet, Ironhide and Sideswipe led by Optimus Prime, are back in action, taking on the evil Decepticons, who are determined to avenge their defeat in 2009's Transformers Revenge of the Fallen. In this new movie, the Autobots and Decepticons become involved in a perilous space race between the U.S. and Russia, and once again human Sam Witwicky has to come to the aid of his robot friends. There's new characters too, including a new villain in the form of Shockwave, a longtime "Transformers" character who rules Cybertron while the Autobots and Decepticons battle it out on Earth.

VIVA RIVA! ¹⁵

Riva is an operator, a man with charm and ambition in equal measure. Kinshasa is an inviting place. With petrol in short supply in DRC's capital, he and his sidekick pursue a plot to get hold of a secret cache - barrels of fuel they can sell for a huge profit. Of course they're not the only ones who want the stuff. Cesar is a ruthless, sharply dressed foreigner thriving in Kinshasa's lawless streets. A female military officer joins the fray. Even the church will betray its tenets for a piece of the action. But Riva's main nemesis is Azor, a crime boss in the classic style: big, decadent and brutal. He's not a man to mess with, but his girlfriend, Nora, may just be the most seductive woman in all of DRC. Riva catches sight of her dancing at a nightclub and it's not long before Nora matches the fuel cache as a coveted object of his lust.

WORLD OF THE DEAD: THE ZOMBIE DIARIES ¹⁸

Three months have passed since a viral outbreak wiped out 99.9% of the world's population, turning its victims into flesh-eating living dead. In the UK, a surviving band of soldiers and civilians have taken refuge at a rural military barracks. Life in this new world is tough and brutal, but hope appears when a high level communication is received from a military base on the coast, telling of sanctuary elsewhere in Europe... But just as salvation appears to be in reach, the base suffers an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the living dead! The surviving handful of troops and civilians must now make their way to the coast to uncover the truth behind the message. Their perilous journey takes them across a now treacherous, death-ravaged landscape, where the living dead are vast in number and wandering bandits impose their own malicious sense of law and order. What follows is a journey into hell and a desperate battle against all odds for the very survival of the human race.

AXE VALE FESTIVAL

AXMINSTER Showground will once more host the Axe Vale Festival on Saturday 25th and Sunday, June 26th. Off the Trafalgar Way the 17th Festival with its 2 free car parks will once more have many of its old attractions while introducing many new ones. This year exhibitors will be coming from afar as Cheshire, Staffordshire & Cambridgeshire.

Plenty for the children to do with the Big Bubble, Swing boats, a Magician for both children and parents, and a visit to the Toys and Hobbies will find Buffers Miniature Railway amongst other attractions. There is a Crèche for the under 6s with qualified staff.

Visit the many Marquees such as Floral with its outstanding display of blooms by award winning exhibitors, call in at the Food Hall with its large selection of products many locally sourced. A visit to Craft is a must with its fine quality goods and 13 new exhibitors. Among the many items are Alpaca garments, Goats milk products, fine Jewellery, Stoneware. Art with work by local artists.

Need to rest a while then the arena with its large seating area is a must, watch the Terrier racing or just sit and listen to the Axe Valley Choir sing old favourites such as "When I fall in love", or tap your feet to the "One Night Stand" band. Hungry, Refreshments are available as well as a licensed bar.

Demonstrations will take place around the Showground, take a look at the Antiques and Collectables with its many artefacts. Visit the Horticultural Show with its variety of classes, Spirit of the Community brings Axminster town to the showground. Don't forget the Shopping Mall with its diversity of goods for home & garden, Nurseries with their top quality plants.

Admission to the festival is £7 for adults (£5.50 in advance), £2 for under 16s (£1.50 in advance), under 5s go free. Advance tickets maybe purchased at local TICs or from the Archway Bookshop and Mole Avon, Axminster.

A celebration for everyone at Beaminster's Big Day

BEAMINSTER'S Big Day on Sunday, July 3rd is a celebration for everyone. Whatever your age or interests, there should be something that appeals – so come and join in and have a great day out amongst friends.

At 11:30am, the church bells will ring out to summon everyone to the square where Street Theatre and a Jazz Band will get us all in the mood. At 11:45am, the Town Crier will announce the event and Lesley Waters will open the proceedings. The Jazz Band will lead a parade up Fleet Street, joined by Wessex Morris Men, Merriott Majorettes, Classic Cars, and local groups. The parade will finish at Beaminster School for the main entertainment.

The day is very special for teddy bears. With the help of the Bell Ringers, teddies can parachute from a 17metre high crane (parachutes will be available if your teddy does not have one.) There will also be a special teddy bears' picnic area created by Little Groves and Clipper Teas.

A whole range of other attractions will entertain – Husky Sled Dogs, Punch & Judy, Skate Park, Dog Agility, Horse and Cart rides. Many local groups will be there - skittles by the

By Maureen and David Wootton,

Young Farmers, climbing wall by the Army Cadets, Street Dance and Contrast Band by the Youth Club, 'Wake and Shake' by St Mary's School, demonstrations by the Fire Brigade. Indoors, Beaminster Games Club will invite everyone to 'Magic the Gathering' alongside craft and WI stalls. The school hall will be decorated for the occasion by students to provide the setting for Dorchester Tango's milonga. And, in the kitchen, Lesley Waters will be giving small-group cookery demonstrations.

There will be food and drink on sale, but you are also very welcome to bring a picnic. And yes, there is a bar.

The grand finale will be a flypast by two Spitfires from the Royal Air Force Battle of Britain Memorial Flight (note that this is re-scheduled from the published programme). We are very privileged to have them, so please be there to give them a great welcome.

We are very grateful to our main sponsors – Magna Housing and Clipper Tea – and to all those who are supporting this event.

Come and join us. We hope that you have a lovely day.

New Hardy Players perform Tess of the D'Urbervilles

THE New Hardy Players' production of 'Tess of the D'Urbervilles' marks the 120th anniversary of the publication of the novel.

Since 2005 the New Hardy Players, based in Dorchester, have adapted and performed four of Thomas Hardy's major novels, two of his short stories and a play about his life.

Their latest production, which will be their seventh, was especially requested by the group's president, Mrs Norrie Woodhall (nee Bugler), who performed in the 1924 production with the original Hardy Players.

Mrs Woodhall, now 105, was directed by Hardy herself and instigated the new group in 2004 to perform for her 100th birthday.

The tragedy 'Tess of the D'Urbervilles', written in 1891, follows the ancient Dorset D'Urberville family, which has fallen into poverty, and their daughter Tess, played by Emma Hill from Puddletown, who is sent out to find employment and recognition with an aristocratic namesake. Good and bad suitors change Tess' life, which follows a complicated and tragic path.

Beaminster, called Emminster in Hardy's novels, features in the story, as well as Bridport, named Port Bredy, where Tess moves to take up employment on a farm after her separation from her husband of just a few hours.

This adaption of the novel has been directed by New Hardy Players member Devina Symes. She and several other members appeared in the recently released film 'From Tim to Time', directed by Dorset based Lord Julian Fellowes and starring Dame Maggie Smith and Timothy Spall.

A strong cast brings this 2011 adaption of Hardy's novel to life, with authentic costumes and some good Dorset accents and phrases, along with music of the period.

Performances will be held as follows:

Sunday, June 26th – Bridport Millennium Green, 6.30pm, tickets £8 from 01308 458703 or 01308 459039 – bring a picnic/chair/blanket and arrive from 5pm onwards (will be held in the WI Hall at 7pm if wet);

Friday, July 1st – The Lighthouse in Poole, 7.30pm, tickets £10 from 0844 406 8666 (discounts available for parties over eight people);

Friday, August 26th – Athelhampton House near Dorchester, 7pm, tickets £12.50 or £9 for Athelhampton House season ticket holders from 01305 848363 – bring a picnic/blanket/chair and arrive from 5.30pm onwards.

A talk on the bloody clash of two empires

ROB Gerrard FRGS will bring his talk, entitled 'Isandhlwana and the defence of Rorke's Drift' to Lyme Regis on Thursday, July 7th.

The thrilling story of the defence of Rorke's Drift was the subject of the 1964 film 'Zulu' starring Stanley Baker and the hitherto unknown Michael Caine - a role destined to make him an international star.

Released as a prequel to 'Zulu', the spectacular 1979 film 'Zulu Dawn' starring Peter O'Toole, Bob Hoskins, Burt Lancaster, Denholm Elliott and Sir John Mills, tells the tragic story of the catastrophe at Isandhlwana - the battle that decimated Lord Chelmsford's Central Column but also, tellingly, in the words of King Cetshwayo kaMpande, 'thrust an assegai deep into the belly of the Zulu nation...'

Rob Gerrard FRGS, son of Brigadier B.J.D. Gerrard DSO who commanded The Gordon Highlanders, was educated in Britain and commissioned into the British army, serving with The Gordons in Kenya, Malaysia, Borneo and Thailand. In 1969 he moved to South Africa to become a commodity trader. His passion for British military history led him into lecturing on the battles of the Anglo-Zulu War of 1879 and of the Anglo-Boer Wars.

He was made a Fellow of The Royal Geographical Society in 1998.

Based at Isandhlwana Lodge, KwaZulu-Natal, Rob's compelling talks on the battlefields are moving and insightful. He not only talks about the military strategies and tactics, but weaves stories of those involved into his presentations, which help his guests experience these battles both emotionally and from the historical perspective.

Rob Gerrard brings his talk, 'Isandhlwana and the defence of Rorke's Drift', to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Thursday, July 7th at 8pm. Ticket cost £12/£11 in advance, and are available from the box office on 07891 663044

Papa Le Gál to play hometown show to support debut EP

THE eagerly-anticipated debut EP from popular funksters Papa Le Gál drops next weekend, and the band will be re-tuning for a special hometown show in support of the release.

The band, originally from Lyme Regis but now based in Bristol, will be supporting the release of the 'Voodoo' EP with a gig at The Harbour Inn in Lyme on Saturday, July 2nd, starting at 9pm. Mixing afrobeat rhythms, latin grooves, dub reggae and funky riffs, Papa Le Gál's live shows are not to be missed, so make sure you get along to this special night.

Support for the gig comes from Cardiff-based 7 piece The King Louis Collective.

This is the second time I've visited the Bridge House. Each time was met with interest and raised eyebrows from colleagues and friends, such is the reputation forming around the Beamster Brasserie - the restaurant nestled within the 700 year-old hotel. A reputation bolstered in recent days with it receiving a second AA rosette.

Each time a visit to their website and a review of its menu excites the palette and culinary curiosity. Particular highlights of the fine dining menu at the time included snails quiche Lorraine; squid ink risotto; five spiced duck. Lyme Bay crab and tiger prawn ravioli; home smoked venison and Lyme Bay

Lobster; pressed wild rabbit rilette.

Fine dining at this standard is always more of an event - wondering how the Michelin trained chefs imaginative dishes will sate the senses. The only problem with the menu is choosing just one plate per course.

On arrival Lucy and I are shown through to the public rooms and take the weight off our feet on animal skin draped chairs. Recent refurbishment has made the lounge room quaint and relaxing, like that of a country home. We are handed the dinner menu and shortly after a glass of crisp and refreshing chardonnay, a perfect tonic to the heat of the summer as we make ourselves cosy.

Shortly after ordering the waitress surprises us with two Hors d'œuvre each. I am pleasantly surprised with firstly with the delicate flavour of the goat's cheese then the crisp texture from the fried crab balls with chilli sauce.

The waitress then returns to lead us to the Georgian panelled Dining Room and sits us at a table with starched, white tablecloths and napkins. We nibble on the delicious homemade bread and wait anxiously in the contemporary and luxurious room for our starters.

My Carpaccio of yellow fin tuna is the very essence of a summer plate, nestled in the middle of mango and papaya cubes, mange tout and a coconut milk sauce. The chef's eye for colour and detail is as finely imagined as a Monet watercolour. The red head is not so enamoured by the sauce, but tucks in to her seafood starter: sautéed Lyme Bay scallops, crispy squid, squid ink risotto, vine tomato and hazelnut and chive citrus butter.

This, she assures me was the best option. I have to agree as I fork a selection of scallop and butter into my mouth. The scallop is moist and fleshy and the butter complements it perfectly with a crunch of hazelnut. The risotto is perfectly cooked, offering both texture and a delicate taste of the sea.

So if the red head's starter was the entrée of choice for us, then my main - or Plat Principal - of Madras crusted loin of lamb, scrag Rogan Josh, crispy lime and coriander sweet bread, turmeric, cardamom rice and cucumber raita was the star turn.

My plate contained THE best Indian food I have ever tasted. The Rogan Josh's delicate mix of herbs was balanced, the lamb tender and as your taste buds danced with joy heat and as your taste buds danced with joy heat from the chillies rose upon your palette making your face flush but not so much as to have you lunging for the water. The rice, more like a risotto, is wonderful as is the madras lamb. The sweet bread, cooked in a lime and coriander batter, is another sign of the head chef's talent.

The redhead's Tagliatelle, nage of wild mushrooms, broad beans and peas, shavings of Parmesan and white truffle oil is well executed if not a little greasy. Everything is cooked to perfection, but is very much what you would expect.

Despite our sated appetite – a look at the Desserts et Fromages menu convinces us we can still squeeze in a little more.

My strawberry and white chocolate cheesecake is deliciously creamy and bursting with the taste of the summer fruit and is complimented by the space dust marshmallow, which fizzles on the tongue. But it's the raspberry lime and pistachio mille feuille which really excites me – packed with flavour and texture like so much of the menu, and very moorish.

As I lose myself in the desert the redhead is giggling with excitement. She's holding aloft a toffee apple so small it is pierced with a cocktail stick. She assures me it's as tasty as it is visually amazing. The rest of her desert, which reads like adult versions of children's classics, contains Bridge Farm cider poached apples, brandy snaps, cinnamon ice cream and green apple jelly. The cubes of jelly pack a huge apple shot to the palette and the ice cream compliments the poached apples perfectly.

As we reflect on the meal afterwards it is the sense of occasion as well as the amazing food that stands out. More expensive than the average meal, it is far from over priced. It is food you want to tell your friends about. Not in a foodie, show off manner but the kind of altruistic and amazed way that expresses your need to spread the word on one of west Dorset's true culinary experiences.

SPREAD

Medical experts explain that we are 'more prone to putting on body fat as we age, due to loss of muscle. With this loss of muscle there will be a lowering of your metabolism' (from Jonny Murray Women's Hour, BBC, Spring 2010).

Mike Hensman is a specialist in reducing bodyfat, using proven resistance based training techniques, which he will teach you in your own home. Result - you stay toned, your metabolism stays high, you feel fitter, stronger and leaner. What's to lose?

Ring Mike Hensman in the evenings on 07967 666829

Mike works as a Trainer in London Tuesdays to Thursdays and locally Mondays and Fridays.

He is a government certified exercise professional.

Top gardening Author Anna Pavord to give talk on "Bulbs For All Seasons" at Forde Abbey

ONE of the UK's most respected gardening authorities, author Anna Pavord, will be giving a talk on "Bulbs For All Seasons" in the Great Hall at Forde Abbey, near Chard, on Sunday, July 10th at 6.30pm. The talk is part of the RHS's immensely popular Growing For Success series, which is open to both RHS members and non-members. Last year's Carol Klein RHS talk at Forde Abbey was a sell-out success.

Owner Alice Kennard said: "We consider ourselves extremely fortunate to have booked Anna. She is an incredibly knowledgeable gardener and a revered writer. Her book The Tulip was a worldwide best-seller, with over 150,000 copies sold in the UK and the US."

Anna Pavord is a prolific author, with not only a weekly gardening column in The Independent newspaper, but also regular contributions to Gardens Illustrated, Country Life, Country Living, Elle Decoration and The Observer. So it is not surprising that she is sought after as a speaker on the garden lecture circuit.

For keen gardeners, this is an opportunity not to be missed, particularly as the event is held in Forde Abbey's magnificent 12th Century Great Hall.

Tickets cost just £9 and £7 for RHS members. The price includes a glass of wine.

To book a ticket, please telephone: 01460 220231. Forde Abbey, Chard, Somerset, TA20 4LU.

With solar PV panels from Heavers of Bridport you could benefit from the government's Feed In Tariff (FIT) and get paid for generating your own energy.

'Getting FIT' will benefit you in a number of different ways:

- Free electricity - say goodbye to paying energy bills
- Get paid 43.3 pence for each unit (kWh) of electricity you generate for yourself
- Sell any surplus electricity back to the national grid for an extra 3p per kWh
- Reduce your CO2 emissions

Solar energy... for that warm feeling inside.

See how much our energy-efficient solar PV panels could help your budget and help the environment.

- ✓ Quality Schuco panels
- ✓ Low maintenance
- ✓ Energy-efficient
- ✓ Fitted by our own trained, professional installers
- ✓ Unaffected by rising fuel costs
- ✓ Tax-free energy
- ✓ The 'FIT' is guaranteed for 25 years

Double bedroom first floor apartment

TASTEFULLY and completely renovated, this is a double bedroom first-floor apartment, with communal gardens and parking. The property has both COASTAL & RURAL views. The property would make an ideal Holiday Retreat, Starter Home or Buy to Let Investment. Leaseholders automatically have a share of the FREEHOLD.

The apartment offers a light, spacious and thoroughly modern feel whilst still retaining many of its Regency features.

From the lounge, the windows offer fine views towards Stonebarrow, the Church and The Street plus countryside views from the bedroom. Luttrell House is located in the main street of the village, with easy access to the village centre and shops, and easy walk to the beach. The existing owners did not originally intend to resell this property but family circumstances have changed with no further need for the property now.

All the owners at Luttrell House have excellent rapport with each other and this is reflected in the regular meetings to plan maintenance of the whole building. This summer the exterior will be repainted as planned.

If you enjoy dabbling with gardening this is also the place for you - although the heavy work of grass cutting and tree surgery, pruning etc is done for you, the owners enjoy adding splashes of seasonal colour and this property has its own garden shed too. Beyond the garden rear border are delightful open views across the Vale.

Original window shutters have been conserved over the sash windows and an attractive fireplace, whilst the flat benefits from high standard redecoration with new quality kitchen and Bosch integral appliances, new large shower and bathroom, new attractive doors and new flooring throughout the property. The result is a fresh well designed co-ordinated space finished to a very high specification. This is one property, if you forgive the cliché, deserves to be viewed to appreciate it.

In brief this offers: Communal Entrance Hall - Original Staircase - FIRST FLOOR - Inner Lobby - Double Aspect Sitting Room with Large Bay Window - Newly Fitted Kitchenette - Double Bedroom - Newly fitted Shower Room - Shed - Communal Gardens - Residents Parking - COASTAL & RURAL views.

Available Leasehold 997 years at £140,000. Further details from the sole agents Charmouth office of Fortnam Smith & Banwell Tel 01297 560945 or visit www.fsb4homes.com

MUSBURY - £395,000

THIS fascinating and delightful home has been the village post office and shop for many years. However, due to ill health, the owners are giving up and the property has been granted planning permission for change of use to residential.

The property already offers well presented and characterful three bedroom accommodation with sitting room, dining hall, kitchen and breakfast room but the extensive shop and post office premises can now be added to the accommodation to form a substantial home, which could provide four bedrooms and three or four reception rooms depending on how it is altered. The most surprising additional bonus to the property is a very large stone barn currently used for garaging and storage, which could be converted to use as an annexe or holiday let (subject to PP). Alternatively, this is a great space for work or hobbies as well as providing off road parking if preferred.

Outside, is a pretty walled courtyard garden facing south to make the most of the sun. The property is Grade II Listed and is situated in the heart of this pretty East Devon village just 2.5 miles from the market town of Axminster and 3 miles from the sea and harbour at Axmouth.

The property is offered to the market with an asking price of £395,000. For more information, please call Gordon & Rumsby on 01460 30888.

BEAMINSTER - £425,000

BROOKLANDS House is a modern detached house situated on the outskirts of the town. The accommodation is well proportioned and has light and airy rooms throughout, as many rooms are double aspect and most have large picture windows. The sitting room has a large bay window and French doors to the conservatory at the side, the dining room overlooks the rear garden and the entrance hall has a useful study area. All three bedrooms are doubles and there is gas-fired central heating, UPVC double-glazed windows and good storage throughout.

Outside there is a private driveway with ample parking and turning space, an integral double garage with utility area, front garden and large mature walled garden to the rear, with a lovely pergola, pond and vegetable patch. The property was built in 1976.

Accommodation includes: Covered Porch – Entrance Hall with Study Area – Sitting Room – Dining Room – Conservatory – Kitchen – Cloakroom – Rear Lobby – Galleried Landing – Three Double Bedrooms – Bathroom – Gas-Fired Central Heating UPVC Double-Glazed Windows – Driveway with Ample Parking – Integral Double Garage – Front Garden – Large Walled Rear Garden

The guide price for Brooklands House is £425,000. To receive particulars or to arrange a viewing please contact Elder & Froy at our Beaminster office on 01308 862606. To view the full sale particulars and floor plans please go to www.elderfroy.co.uk.

UPLYME - £450,000

THE Roost is a very spacious detached period house reputed to date back in part to the 16th Century. It was previously the Coach House to 'Waterside' (home of Admiral Jackson and later Percy Fawcett the Victorian explorer), and in more recent times it has been a guest house and private home. There have been only three owners in the last 60 years.

The property can best be described as eccentric and unique. The extensive accommodation is very flexible and equally well suited as a goodsized family home or providing excellent workspaces for home working. At present there is a separate self-contained flat which has been let out and, incorporated in the main house, is a granny flat.

Although offering modern amenities the property would now benefit from some refurbishment.

The Roost faces south and enjoys a sheltered location just 50 metres or so above the River Lym and the picturesque riverside walk to Lyme Regis about 1 ½ miles away. Adjacent to the river are a number of fine mature trees creating a wooded setting.

SUMMARY: THE MAIN HOUSE Ground Floor: Hall. Living Room. Dining Room. Kitchen/Breakfast Room. Utility and various Store Rooms. First Floor: Large Studio/Bedroom. 3 Bedrooms. Bathroom/W.c., Granny Flat (or additional principal accommodation) comprising: Kitchen / Dining Room. Bedroom / Sitting Room and Bathroom/W.c.. Gas central heating. THE FLAT: Sitting Room. Kitchen. Bedroom. Shower Room/W.c. OUTSIDE: Large Roof Garden. Sheltered courtyard and cottage style garden. Playroom/Studio. Greenhouse and Shed. Integral Garage (former stables).

Viewing is strictly by appointment with the vendor's agents, Martin Diplock Estate Agents & Valuers, 36 Broad Street, Lyme Regis, telephone (01297) 445500.

WEST BAY - £335,000

HOLLOWAY are pleased to be marketing this delightful detached coastal bungalow having exceptional views and backing onto fields located in a no-through road.

The property features two bedrooms, lounge/dining room with panoramic westerly views over Bridport town and surrounding hills and woodland, a sunroom with views to rear garden and local hillside, kitchen/breakfast room, bathroom and cloakroom. There is also a garage and driveway. This bungalow circa 1975 also benefits from sealed double glazing and gas central heating.

Those people seeking a detached bungalow with access to Jurassic coastal walks, coastal facilities and close proximity of all amenities are advised an early viewing. The asking price is £335,000 freehold. For further information please contact Wendy Fleet at Holloway Estate Agents on 01308 422121.

New iPhone app for Mini owners

THE launch of a new MINI Emergency Service app for iPhone, allows MINI owners to request roadside assistance, locate their nearest MINI dealer and monitor their assistance status at the touch of their screen. Developed by Mondial Assistance UK, the new app has been designed specifically for the customers of motor manufacturers with MINI being the first to take advantage of its benefits.

MINI Emergency Service has been helping owners in motoring difficulty since 2001, and is provided with all new MINIs registered in the UK for the first 3 years from the date of new car registration.

Any MINI Owner can now download the app free of charge but to take full advantage of all the available features they must have a valid MINI Emergency Service policy. For those customers whose MINIs are over 3 years of age MINI Emergency Service can be purchased either on its own or in conjunction with a MINI Insured Warranty at www.MINIwarranty.co.uk.

The launch of the free MINI Emergency Service app is one of many new features MINI has launched this year as part of "MINI Connected", enabling iPhone users a greater level of connectivity both in and out of their MINI.

Once a request for assistance is launched through the MINI Emergency Service app, GPS technology identifies the customer's exact location, allowing MINI representatives in the Assistance Operations Centre to quickly find the nearest Customer Service Technician or assistance resource. The app then provides the customer with the estimated time of arrival direct to their phone, together with the ability to monitor, in real-time via Google Maps, the journey status of the technician attending their request.

Jane Noble, BMW Group National Customer Service Manager, says, "The launch of the MINI Emergency Service app is a natural extension of the service we provide to our customers, putting MINI owners firmly in control and further enhancing the ownership experience. This is the latest development in a range of tools we are creating to enhance the way we communicate with MINI owners to bring them the latest innovations on and off the road."

HOWZAT! - The West Dorset cricket scene

WITH STUART BROOM

Dorchester 3rds dismissed for 37

HEAVY rain on Friday put paid to the majority of cricket on Saturday. Of the local sides that played Beaminster looked to be heading for a second successive win before Poole Town's Nick Williams struck a winning half century.

Bridport were on the wrong end of two century makers after Mark Smith asked Cerne Valley to bat, whilst Pete Tucker's young Dorchester 3rds got the first reality check after three successful seasons when they were dismissed for just 37 all out.

Sunday saw better weather and better results with wins for Symene, Charlton Down, their first of the season, and Broadwindsor.

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE

Division Two

POOLE TOWN 2ND 159-8 BEAT

BEAMINSTER 156-6 BY TWO WICKETS

AFTER an excellent unbroken partnership of 66 between skipper Ross Baker and Hugh Rathbone had seen Beaminster set a challenging total of 156-6 after recovering from 90-6.

They appeared to be set for a second successive victory after they had reduced their hosts to 80-6. However Nick Williams ruined their chances with an unbeaten half-century to see Poole 2nds home.

Poole had no hesitation in putting Beaminster into bat on a green pitch with damp patches after winning the toss. Fred Everitt making his first appearance of the season, was in good form and played some attractive strokes.

However, at the other end wickets tumbled regularly as the Beaminster batsmen struggled with bounce and movement off of the pitch.

Dave Penman (5), Nick David (0), Simon Jones (7) and Will Everitt were all back in the pavilion before play was abandoned for 15 minutes after heavy rain.

When play resumed, Fred Everitt was caught for 33 as he tried to accelerate the score, and with Adam Herring (8) also dismissed, Beaminster looked like they were heading for a low score as they crept along to 90-6.

However Rathbone (23 not out) and Baker (45 not out) ensured Beaminster reached a reasonable target with some aggressive shots and good running between the wickets.

In reply, the Poole batsmen had similar problems as opening bowlers Baker and Jones found movement and bounce.

Baker (3-28) bowled his full allocation of overs Poole reached 45-3 and, with Murray Legg also applying pressure, that became 51-5.

Quinn (14) and Williams progressed that score to 80 before Legg (3-52) trapped him leg before. At 80-6 Beaminster looked like they were heading for successive victories but Nick Williams (52 not out) used all of his experience to guide Poole to their target with one over remaining.

Although both Herring (1-18) and Jones (1-17) picked up a wicket each it wasn't enough as Williams batted stubbornly and hit any loose deliveries for victory.

Division Three

BRIDPORT 104 ALL OUT

LOST TO CERNE VALLEY 262-3 BY 158 RUNS

BRIDPORT suffered a hefty defeat at the hands of Cerne Valley for whom both Neil Kellaway and John Stiles hit centuries.

Mark Smith was in two minds whether the game should go ahead, but with the morning sunshine decided to proceed.

On a damp wicket he invited the visitors to bat, and when Sam Good took a stunning catch to remove Lehal off Ashley Nicholls (1-42) it looked a good decision. However Stiles was joined by Kellaway and with a near 200 partnership took the game away from Bridport, and despite Gape (2-52) claiming the wickets of Stiles (102) and Tucker (15) they amassed 262-3 with Kellaway finishing with 115 not out.

Bridport lost Liam Toohill (13), Gape (2) and Good (6) and only a partnership of 49 between Ed Halson (31) and Smith (35) managed to stem the tide before Porch (5-18) ripped out the bottom order to dismiss Bridport for 104 all out.

After, Smith was in reflective mood. "Pardon the pun, but it never rains but it pours!

"Despite the rain on Friday after deliberating long and hard I decided to go ahead, a decision I came to regret later in the day.

"I won the toss and decided to have a bowl on a damp wicket which after Sam Good stunning catch in the slips early on seemed promising, but the introduction of Kellaway together with Styles proved it to be very wrong.

"The wicket actually played very well, and an excellent batting display made all our efforts in the field look laboured and the team despondent. With no luck going our way, heads dropped and it was a very long afternoon.

"Once again chasing a large total our batting ability deserted us again with only Ed Halson and me managing half decent totals.

"With a 20 over friendly against Beaminster on Thursday, I hope we can get this out of our system before the weekend.

With Parley and Compton House coming up away from home, we have to turn this disappointing run around; 40 points from the next two games and nothing less is required. We have great ability at this club and I know all my players can do so much better. With clearer heads and more luck I know we can show we are worthy of being in this division."

Division Five

DORCHESTER 3RDS 37 ALL OUT

LOST TO MARNHULL 2ND 149 ALL OUT BY 112 RUNS

CAPTAIN Pete Tucker was almost speechless after his young side had been dismissed for just 37 against Marnhull 2nds.

"We bowled and fielded really well, probably our best performance of the season so far, to dismiss them for 149 all out. However we had to go off five times during their innings which doesn't help continuity.

"If we did not have an artificial wicket the match couldn't have been played. There was water running down the edges of the wicket and the outfield was quite soggy, so we did really well in the field."

Former Dorset player Barry Lewis was the mainstay of Marnhull's inning with 65 not out.

Dorchester unfortunately found batting a real problem with seven players clean bowled as they meekly submitted to 37 all out.

"Unfortunately the batting was abysmal, and after over three seasons of success this would have been a big shock for the lads.

"However they have the chance to turn it around next week and as Barry Lewis said after the game, if you had taken his innings away from their total it would have been pretty poor."

◆ Phil Hawkins: 3rd 50 of the season.

Sunday Division Four

SYMENE 152-5 BEAT

POKESDOWN WILLOWS 151

ALL OUT BY FIVE WICKETS

A WELL-JUDGED run-chase saw Symene record a five wicket win over Pokesdown Willows in a game that the home

■ ON HIS TOES: Bridport batsman Liam Toohill drives off the back foot during an innings of 13 in Saturday's 158-run defeat by Cerne.

side, give or take the odd alarm, largely controlled through most of the afternoon.

Skipper Graham Bartlett won the toss and elected to field first; opening in tandem with Marcel Grunschloss coming in off a short run in an attempt to use the favourably damp conditions.

However it needed the introduction of Sam Challis to make the vital breakthrough and he removed the big-hitting Mike Butcher for 41 with a typically athletic diving return catch.

The three week gap since a full afternoon in the field undoubtedly contributed to the Symene men enduring their worst fielding display of the season, conceding a top-scoring 42 extras but they nevertheless dismissed their opponents in the 41st over with Grunschloss (4-31) and Liam Toohill (3-41) the pick of the bowlers.

Symene began their response in a nervous manner and were soon 6-2 having lost Nigel and Liam Toohill inside the fourth over.

It needed a watchful third wicket partnership of 93 between the veteran Phil Hawkins who notched his third half-century of the season in compiling a chanceless 59, with vital support from left-hander Steve Prior (19).

A late flurry of wickets briefly raised alarm but an unbroken sixth wicket partnership of 43 between the belligerent Grunschloss (26 not out) and more watchful Richard Keech (22 not out) saw the West Dorset outfit home with 13 balls to spare.

At the half-way point in a season with five victories and just the one defeat, Symene are well placed to continue their promotion push and resume combat after a week's break against Charlton Down at Symondsburry on July 3rd.

LYCHETT MINSTER 187 ALL OUT

LOST TO CHARLTON DOWN 265-6 BY 78 RUNS

CHARLTON Down registered their first on field win of the season with a comprehensive victory over Lychett Minster.

After a season blighted by bad weather, the hastily cobbled together team were just glad to be out in the middle, but it paid off.

Charlton Down won the toss and chose to bat, and although Nick Roe fell cheaply, Ian Doyle and James Pretty pushed the rate along at about four an over until Pretty (39) perished.

Whilst Doyle continued to accumulate runs, Simon Dunford (22) and Chas Duerdoth, whose 42 came off just 21 balls, both scored at a pace, before Doyle completed an excellent century and remained 113 not out at the end enabling the visitors to finish on a total of 265-6.

In reply Pretty (2-43) and Duerdoth (4-34) kept things very tight and the game was soon out of Lychett Minster's reach, as early wickets and a slow scoring rate put the pressure on the middle order and they never really got going.

Mark Homewood swung the ball well and picked up two wickets, whilst good fielding throughout the team as well as continued accurate bowling meant that the home side could only managed 186 all out.

WEST CHINNOCK 191-4 LOST TO

BROADWINDSOR 192-9 BY ONE WICKET

BROADWINDSOR won this excellent, exciting encounter with just seven balls remaining.

Winning the toss they put their hosts in and good knocks from Harper (41) and Baulch (43) enabled them to set a challenging target.

Ross Baker was the pick of the Broadwindsor bowlers with a very economical spell of 1-11 from eight overs that included five maidens.

The game was nip and tuck all the way through with Broadwindsor's batsmen, led by another excellent half century by Joe Hawkins (53) making good contributions before falling to the accurate West Chinnock bowlers. David Hall (36), Steve Phillips (23) and Dean Hyett (20) being the other visiting batsmen of note.

Captain Ade Phillips said: "It was a really interesting game and a good team performance. We did well to win in the end seeing that we lost Chris Park, who is one of our mainstays, for a duck in the first over."

ON THE GREEN - LYME REGIS GOLF

All smiles at Seniors open day

SENIORS OPEN DAY

FOLLOWING the successful completion of the Club Golf weeks, and with some indifferent weather forecast hopes, were not high for a satisfactory outcome for the first of the two summer Seniors Open Events writes Steve Percival.

However, pessimism was not rewarded and the day was an outstanding success both in numbers taking part and in the results achieved.

Not only was the event fully subscribed it was in fact oversubscribed with visiting players and there were no spaces available for members of the host club.

With prizes on offer for a better ball competition, two nearest the pins, the best back nine, the best front nine and for the "nearest the line" on the 18th competition was closely fought for the honours.

Also, with a number of players who had taken part in the golf week returning to play, recent "local knowledge" was to prove key in a number of the competitions.

In the team better ball event local pairing of Terry Kearley and Mike Brake from Bridport took the honours with a very creditable 44 points over the pair of Chester Barnes and Chris Coles from Churston Golf Club, returning from successful participation in the golf week, with 43 points.

Nearest the pin on the 8th was Mike Upham from Henbury Golf Club whilst Terry Virgo from Exeter Golf & Country club took the honours on the 13th.

The best back nine was recorded by the pairing of Rees and Bristow from the Mendip club. Honours on the front nine went to Surrier and Jackson from the Mendip Club.

Mindful of the shorter distances achieved by senior players from the tee the "nearest the line" competition was based on the proximity of the ball played from the tee to a line 10 metres in length down the centre of the fairway some 175 metres from the 18th tee.

Inevitably the longer hitters overshot the mark by some distance but with direction from the tee proving paramount the honours went to John Pulman from East Devon Golf Club.

All in all the day was an outstanding success and congratulations are very much due to Ted Baker and his team of helpers for the smooth running of the event.

SENIORS JUNE STABLEFORD

WITH the continued improvement in the weather from that of the preceding weekend looking doubtful a field of 80 senior players assembled to contest the monthly stableford competition on Monday, June 20th.

Whilst the weather held good for the early starters, those starting in the early afternoon not only suffered the onset of the forecast rain but also had to abandon their rounds after only a few holes due the arrival of the typical Lyme Regis fog.

For those who did complete their rounds the conditions were in the main good with greens running true but with the residual moisture from the overnight rain reducing the run on the fairways.

There were, however, some outstanding scores. In division one Brian Ridley produced yet another outstanding round to gain first place with 40 points over Brian Clarke with 37.

In third place on countback was Peter Hardisty. Division two featured an exceptional round of 46 points by Philip Pardoe-Williams with Graham Winter producing another steady round to score 39 points in second place. Third was Peter Williams with 37 points.

LYME REGIS LADIES by Ellie Langford

LYME Regis Ladies achieved success in the County Interclub Foursomes held at Broadstone Golf Club on the 13th and 14th of June.

Three teams were entered, a Bronze pair, a Silver pair and a Scratch pair. The Scratch pair, Jane Southcombe and Melissa Mahon brought home the Trophy after winning 5/4 against Dudsbury. Lyme Regis last won the competition in 1999 so many congratulations to the winning pair. Our Silver team was also in the final but unfortunately lost to Knighton Heath.

There was a strong wind and heavy showers when the ladies played their Centenary Cocktail last Thursday. The competition comprised of six holes each of four ball better ball, Greensomes and Foursomes.

Results: 1st: Jane Southcombe & Jenny Scott 38pts. 2nd: Linda Bass & Hanna Jacobsen 37pts ocb. 3rd Ellie Langford & Flicity Poole 37pts.

SCHOOLS ATHLETICS

Colfox girls among best in country

THE INTER and Junior Girls teams continued the outstanding reputation that The Sir John Colfox School have in school's athletics nationally, when both age groups produced some top class performances to qualify for the next round of the English Schools Cup, the largest athletics competition in Europe.

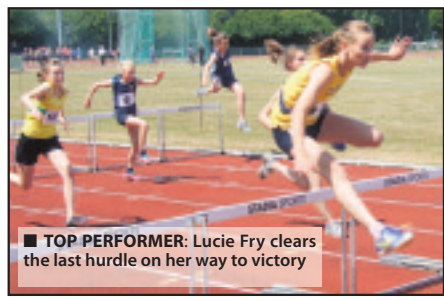

After a successful day at Millfield, the Inter Girls are ranked as the 24th best in the country, whilst the Junior Girls are 82nd best in their age group.

The Inter Girls exceeded all expectations by qualifying for the South West Regional A final for the first time. They achieved their highest points score ever, and finished up with the 7th highest team total in the South West of England. To put this in perspective, 395 schools across the country entered an Inter girls team.

The Junior Girls qualified for Round Two of the English Schools Cup at Bournemouth after an impressive performance at Millfield.

This year a total of 425 schools entered a junior girls team, so to finish 14th ranked in SW England (82nd in the country) is a fantastic achievement, particularly when you consider this was the first athletics event for many of the team, and most have only been training for their event for four weeks.

Stand out performance of the day was Lucie Fry who achieved 18 points in the hurdles and a whopping 24 points in the discus.

■ TOP PERFORMER: Lucie Fry clears the last hurdle on her way to victory

Annual tournament underway

AFTER a fairly quiet week with friendlies, only one to be precise, all hell lets loose now with the start of the Annual Tournament writes Paul Moffitt.

Now tournament week usually heralds the start of some reasonable weather, if the start on Saturday was anything to go by, water polo would have been more appropriate. The official opening was by the Mayor, Sally Holman. One can only hope that conditions improve as the week progresses.

All the league teams were in action this past week with 10 points for Lyme 'B', eight points for the Championship side but alas only two points apiece for the ladies and Lyme 'A'.

The ladies were unfortunate against a strong Greenhill side, losing as they did by only one shot overall but only securing two points.

The 10 points gained by the men's 'B' side against Greenhill 'B' is a real morale booster and hopefully will spur them on to better things.

The 'A' team unfortunately were well beaten by Greenhill 'A' and seem to be finding this season particularly hard going.

The Championship side did well against Alexandra Park, with both Charlie Barber's and Paul Pomeroy's rinks coming out on top. Despite all the best efforts of Paul Moffitt's rink they finally lost out by three shots.

COUNTY HONOUR FOR
LYME REGIS BOWLER

THE Dorset County Ladies Indoor Bowling Association has recently confirmed Mrs Pat Cole, member of Lyme Regis Bowling Club for 30 years, as their President for the next 12 months.

Pat is no stranger to this type of honour, having previously held the same position with the County Outdoor Association, the County Ladies League and for two years at the Lyme Regis Club.

Although Lyme Regis does not have an indoor bowls facility of its own, most of its members play indoors during the winter months at nearby clubs, in Pat's case at the Bridport and West Dorset Club, based in Bridport.

Pat has been a member there for over 25 years and has played for Dorset County Indoor Association on many occasions during her career, this in addition to her exploits at outdoor clubs across the whole of the South West and further afield.

Women's World Cup opportunity for local footballers

FEMALE football fans are being invited to take part in the first West Dorset football festival to celebrate the FIFA Women's World Cup at Thomas Hardy Leisure Centre in Dorchester next Tuesday (June 28th).

The event which runs from 4pm until 6pm is open to all girls aged 9-13 and is being run by West Dorset District Council and Dorset County Football Association.

The players in the competition will be split into the four teams in England's Qualifying Group which are Mexico, New Zealand and Japan.

The aim of the event is to let girls play football, enjoy themselves and to give information about the girls' teams at Dorchester Town Youth Football Club.

The competition will take place on the district council run leisure centre's 3G artificial grass pitch.

West Dorset District Council Leader Robert Gould said: "We are delighted to be running this event along with the Dorset County Football Association. This is another example of how the district council is providing opportunities for young people to get involved with sport."

Women and Girls Football Development Officer from Dorset County Football Association Clare Nichols said: "This is a fantastic opportunity for girls in the area to come together and play football in a fun, relaxed atmosphere whilst celebrating England's success in reaching the FIFA Women's World Cup Finals.

"Events like this are crucial in helping to raise the profile of girl's football in Dorset and to promote the work of local football clubs like Dorchester Town Youth FC who currently have four girls teams and are keen to recruit more players for next season."

If you are interested in attending the event please contact Sports Development Officer Liz Pill at West Dorset District Council by calling 01305 252263 or email l.pill@westdorset-dc.gov.uk or Clare Nichols at Dorset County Football Association on 01202 688280.

However you need to hurry as the deadline to enter the event is this Friday (June 24th).

◆ LAUNCHED: Lyme Regis Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, delivers the first bowl at Lyme Regis bowls Club's Annual Tournament as club President Reg Winterborne oversees.

Successful year for Dorchester boxing club

THE Dorchester & District Amateur Boxing Club celebrated a fantastic year with the Annual Trophy Presentation followed by their AGM.

Chairman Steve Scott reflected on the outstanding achievements of the last twelve months and thanked all the boxer's and coaches for their hard work and dedication.

He also added that a big thank you must go to the council for awarding the club Step-up funding which has helped enormously in the amount of training that it has provided for boxers in the area.

He finished by saying: "Truly I am overjoyed with your results. Thank you. I hope that you all intend to excel yourselves again next season."

At the AGM Capt. Cobbold once again lent his undivided support towards the young boxers.

Awards winners were:

Tiger Breeze puts record straight Exmoor provides stern test

By Stuart Broom

HAVING failed to continue Bob Buckler's record of every horse this season having been placed in the first three when he finished sixth at Fontwell two weeks ago, Tiger Breeze made amends by finishing third in a much better run at Ffos Las last week.

The five-year-old achieved his first top three finish in nine runs in what was a quite competitive novice chase.

At Fontwell over 2¼ miles he was prominent throughout the early part of the race and led from approaching the sixth fence until three from home, but when the field accelerated he tailed off to finish a distant sixth.

New tactics were employed at the Welsh course in the Play Mecca Bingo On Your iPhone Novices' Hurdle over two miles where Buckler decided to hold him up, and although he was unable to overcome the first two, he galloped on to secure third place fairly easily.

Head lad Giles Scott explained, "He is very headstrong and at Fontwell didn't settle well in front."

"As a consequence when it came to the finish he was tiring as he barely gets two miles, and couldn't make any impression on the leaders."

"At Ffos Las we decided to hold him up in the pack and once again did pull hard and Nathan (Sweeney) struggled to settle him. However he kept galloping to the finish and did much better."

"The winner was rated at something like 131 so it was quite competitive, but he jumped well and beat a couple of nice horses."

"The object is to try to get him to settle early on and hold him up and to come with one run at the end."

He is scheduled to return to Ffos Las tomorrow (Thursday) along with Culahill, to see if there is improvement.

Culahill made it 11 out of 12 top three finishes when he claimed an excellent second behind Montana Gold at the same meeting.

Sweeney brought the nine-year-old to challenge the leader four fences from home and they battled it out neck and neck until after the final fence where the Buckler horse finally gave way under a stone more weight and went down by 1¾ lengths.

"He ran a cracking race," said Scott. "He was beaten by a horse that went point-to-pointing a year ago having had a good run of success over national hunt rules."

"He's come back with a low handicap which gave him a great advantage over Culahill."

"He jumped well and and ran a great race but the weight made a difference, particularly in the run-in."

Mister Matt had run up to his mark at Fontwell on the same card as Tiger Breeze when finishing third behind two excellent horses in the 150% Bonus At 888sport.com Beginners' Chase over 2¼ miles.

"He jumped well again and ran up to his mark but was beaten by two good horses."

Fun Guy has been retired from racing. The six-year-old made a promising start finishing fourth in a bumper at Newton Abbot, but apart from another fourth in a hurdle race at Taunton last November, he has not managed a place in his nine races and despite having a throat operation was pulled up in his last race because he choked.

LAST Sunday Lyme Regis-born Luke Reed travelled to Wimbleball Lake on Exmoor to compete in the UK 70.3 Half Ironman.

This race, which is claimed to be the toughest of this distance in the world, consists of a 1.2 mile lake swim, a 56.4 mile bike ride - which contains 54 hills (5905ft of climbing over the two lap course) - and a half-marathon which contained 1323ft of climbing over a three-lap course.

Luke completed the race in 5.30.11. The splits were: swim - 33.46 / bike - 3.08.46 / Run - 1.40.56.

Afterwards Luke said: "That this is the toughest race I've ever done. After putting a lot of effort into the swim and bike I really suffered on the run, and was very pleased to see the finish line."

There were 1250 starters in the race, Luke finished 118th overall out of 1108 finishers.

5-wicket Wallace leaves Countess weary

A FIVE wicket haul from seamer Wallace Blackmore formed the platform for Uplyme & Lyme Regis 2nd XI's second victory of the season.

Blackmore returned figures of 5 for 32 from 11 excellent overs as Uplyme blasted out hosts' Countess Wear 2nds. Skipper Brian Rattenbury won the toss and opted to field first in blustery, cold conditions. His decision paid off immediately as 'Wear slumped to 10 for 4.

Blackmore entered the fray as first change and soon ripped through the middle order with the team's best bowling analysis of the season.

A stubborn seventh wicket partnership of 34 enabled the hosts to stumble to 80 all out.

Conditions certainly favoured the bowlers and so if proved as Uplyme openers Eddie Clarke and Henry Perry were both dismissed with just five runs on the board.

Wickets continued to tumble at regular intervals before number nine Paul Crompton came to the crease to join Shannon Gross berg at 55 for 7.

The pair added a crucial 17 runs in 'Boycott-esque' backs-to-the-wall style before Gossberg was cleaned up for 7. But Crompton with a gutsy unbeaten 12 and youngster Paddy Barraclough (2no) saw the side home.
